

Canton High Campus Cuffnotes

By Patty Morgan

HURRAH, for the Canton Black Bears! They had a very good week with two wins over Hendersonville and Waynesville. These victories added two more feathers in their victory caps. The Bears will be battling against Asheville School on Saturday night. Our Junior Varsity has certainly been doing fine this year. When they play ball, they play for keeps.

Last week, "Best Citizens" for all grades were elected. For the ninth, Charlie Coleman and Mike Clark; tenth, Tommy Best and Sue Boyd; eleventh, Joyce Smathers and Bobby Miller; twelfth, Glenda Pressley and John Ray Jamison, and for the school's "Best Citizens," Janice Early and Dale Childers.

Junior marshals were also elected with Charles Green as chief marshal, Steve Sellars, Bobby Edwards, Bobby Miller, Joyce Smathers, Mary Welte, Estelena Robinson and Joyce Hightower as marshals.

Friday in assembly we had as our guest speaker a navy officer who talked to us about the different branches of service. He stressed emphatically the necessity of finishing high school before beginning one's service career.

The CYO had Rev. Ray as its guest speaker Monday. His talk was dynamic and thought provoking. This club has become one of the strongest in CHS in the short time that it has been organized. From the CYO, a youth prayer meeting has branched out which is held at various churches from Sunday to Sunday. From now on the meetings are to be held at the Central Methodist Church. About 200 young folk attended the last meeting.

A group of "singing larks" had a very pleasant trip to Mars Hill College last weekend, where they attended the choral clinic. Other students from various schools also attended and had a good old singing time. There were many hours of rehearsal spent in preparation for a concert Saturday night. All
