Jesus Interprets History

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Luke 17:20-21; 21:5-35.

Pharisees demanded that Jesus tell them when the Kingdom of God would come. He said: "The kingdom of God cometh not with observation; neither shall they say, Lo, here! to there! for behold, the Kingdom of God is within you."

The disciples who were with Jesus spoke of the temple, how it was adorned with lovely stones and gifts. Jesus said, "The days will come in which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down."

Jesus was asked when such destruction would occur. He said when they heard of wars, commotions, both of nature and by nation rising against nation, and signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars and upon the earth."

Jesus said that when the fig tree burst into leaf, all knew that summer was near. So when the things He had spoken of happened, they would know that the Kingdom of God was at hand.
MEMORY VERSE—Luke 21:33.
