Safety Trouble

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—There was quite a chuckle when O. B. Burch of Grand Junction, Colo., got up to address a traffic safety conference for young people.

The Colorado youngster was on crutches. Burch hastily explained it was sports, not traffic that broke his leg.

Odd One Out

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Mrs. Shelley Ivester at the Southern Bank and Trust Company rifled through a pile of one dollar bills and turned one around. Then she went through again and turned one around. On a third try she still found one out of order. She tried twice more and the same thing happened.

The bill seemed perfectly normal, except that if you turned the stack over there was always one upside down.

Clifton Y. Green of the Federal Reserve Bank said in 30 years he had seen only a few such bills. The Federal Bureau of Printing and Engraving had reversed a sheet. Green said the bill was worth a dollar—in fact, some collectors pay more.

Mrs. Ivester became a collector herself, substituting one of her own bills for the odd one.

Youth Week Planned By Dellwood Baptists

Youth will be at the helm of the Dellwood Baptist Church in observance of Youth Week beginning April 8. All officers and teachers will be the young people of the church.

Andy Owen, Jr., will be the speaker at the Sunday morning service, with other members of the youth groups in charge of the rest of the service.

Sunday School classes will also be taught by the junior church members.

Grazing of domestic stock is prohibited on the mountain districts of the North Carolina National Forests.
