

Fines Creek Livestock Judging Team Ranks First

The Fines Creek livestock judging team took top place in the Balsam FFA contest at Clemson College Thursday.

The Fines Creek team, composed of James Ferguson, John Evans and Jerry Ferguson, and under the direction of James Carpenter, agriculture instructor of the school, scored 1397 points out of a possible 1800.

The Clyde team was second with 1,328 points, and Crabtree third with 1,290, with Sylvia taking fourth place with 1,252.

Individual honors went to Roger McElroy from Crabtree with 525 points out of possible 600 followed by W. Green of Clyde with 510 and John Evans of Fines Creek with 500.

The Dairy Judging results are as follows:

First place team Sylvia with 1255 points out of possible 1800; second place team Waynesville with 1225, third place team Fines Creek with 1200 and fourth place team Crabtree with 1145.

Individual honors going to Mack Ratcliff of Waynesville with 475 out of possible 600 followed by Arnold Phillips of Fines Creek and T. McClure of Sylvia with 460 points.

First and second place teams will go to Asheville in May for District elimination contest.

The Balsam Federation is made up of schools in both Jackson and Haywood County.

Missionary Will Address Group Tonight

Dr. Sidney Anderson, missionary to China for 40 years, will be the principal speaker at a meeting of the Haywood County Methodist Men's Fellowship at 7 o'clock tonight at the Rock Hill School, Jonathan Creek.

The Shady Grove Methodist Church will be host at the meeting, and women of the congregation will serve a dinner.

Dr. Anderson served in Shanghai, China until the Chinese Communists took over the country, at which time he moved to Hong Kong, British crown colony, to head refugee work at Westley Village.

The Rev. George C. Starr, Jr., will be in charge of the program.

Gets Head Start

JOCKEY Carlos de Mello wears the new protective crash helmet for the first time at the Agua Caliente, Mexico, track. It is made of laminated fibre glass shell and is capable of withstanding 1,800 pounds of pressure per square inch. If thrown, the jockey thus gets a head start.

Hazelwood Study Course Set Tuesday

A study course for the parents of children who enter Hazelwood School this fall will be held Tuesday at the school, starting at 10 a.m.

The course, held for the first time last year, is under the sponsorship of the Hazelwood PTA. It is designed to help get children ready for entering school, to acquaint parents with what they can expect of the school, and what the school expects of them.

Following registration at 10 a.m., a program will get under way at 10:15 with short talks by Mrs. Rubye Bryson, public health nurse, on "Is Your Child Ready for School?" Mrs. Eva Cole, first-grade teacher, "His First Year at School," and Carl Ratcliff, Hazelwood principal, "School Policies and Routines."

The conference will adjourn at noon.

54th round. Other words misspelled in the three divisions of the spelling bee were:

Convenient, separate, switchboard, indelible, quite, remember, difference, January, desert, discovery, against, occupy, double, friendly, height, necessary, omitted, ninety, quality, probably, usually, and umpire.

The Freel and Robinson Furniture Co. of Canton presented cash prizes of $12.50 to the first-place contestants, $7.50 to the second-place contestants, and $5 to those in third place. Smith's Drug Store of Waynesville and the Champion Drug Store of Canton also presented $2 to each of the other entrants in the spelling bee.

C. C. Poindexter of Bethel again directed the event as he has for the three years of its existence.

Judges were Naomi Cox, Betty Whisman, and Clint Stephens of Western Carolina College.

The Cincinnati Redlegs have working agreements with Seattle of the Pacific Coast League, Havana of the International League and Nashville of the Southern Assn.

be quoted as saying it will benefit Buncombe, Jackson, Henderson and every other county almost as much as it will Haywood.

Glenn D. Brown, Clyde: "The new road is the greatest blessing to Western North Carolina since the Southern Railway was built, and will even surpass its blessings."

William Medford, Waynesville: "I think it is one of the most important things that has happened to Western North Carolina since the highway program started in 1921. It will make this area much more available from the West and mid-West than it ever has been before."

Beekman Huger, Canton: "As president of the Western North Carolina Associated Communities I think that it is the finest bit of news that has been announced in some time. I agree thoroughly with the editorial that appeared in The Mountaineer in the issue announcing the news and feel that this road and any and all other roads and highway improvements we get will be of tremendous value to all Western North Carolina for generations to come."

Bryan Medford: "I am just as pleased as everybody else. This should be the beginning of a new era for Haywood County, with bigger and better things around the corner. It shows what can be done by united cooperative effort, with everybody pulling together."

Bob Francis: "We have been needing it a long time, and it will benefit the area a great deal. We certainly are glad to see it coming around."

Hub Caldwell: "I think it is the best thing that ever happened to all the western counties. It opens a lot of the Park that people would never see without it; it opens the markets of Tennessee to the people of North Carolina and it opens the way to travel from the west. It's the ideal place for a road."

C. A. George: "I think it is the greatest thing that has happened."

4 Music Groups Present Spring Concert At WTHS

Four musical groups at Waynesville Township High School—the junior and senior bands, the orchestra, and the mixed chorus—combined their talents for another enjoyable spring concert at the school auditorium Friday night before a large crowd.

For the large gold-clad senior band, the program was a presentation of the numbers to be played at the annual state band concert at Greensboro this weekend.

The junior band, directed by Robert Campbell, led off the concert with three numbers: a march, "Hutchinson Field" by Richards; "The Children's Prayer" from "Hansel and Gretel" by Humperdinck; and "The Great Gate of Kiev" by Moussorgsky.

The orchestra, directed by Charles L. Isley, next took the stage for four numbers and a solo: "Overture to the Secret Marriage" by Cimarosa; "Pizzicato Polka" by Strauss; a waltz, "Belle of the Ball" by Anderson; a violin solo by Bobby Walker, "Night Flower" and "Hot Staccato" by Brittain.

Friday The 13th Lucky For Haywood As Waynesville, Canton, Bethel Win

Despite the fact that it was the 13th, last Friday was a lucky day for Haywood County baseball teams as Waynesville blanked Brevard, 9-0; Canton belted Lee Edwards of Asheville, 11-6; and Bethel walloped Christ School of Arden, 9-4.

Hurler George Mitchell brought the Mountaineers their third victory in three starts by keeping six Blue Devil hits well spaced, while Waynesville batters were getting 10 safeties off two Brevard pitchers.

Mitchell struck nine BHS batters during his stay on the mound. Brown of Brevard whiffed four, and Howard three for the losers.

Bobby Hill got two hits for WTHS in two trips to the plate, while James Carver had two for four, both doubles. Lane and Mitchell also hit doubles.

English, Howard, and Hännicutt each got two hits for Brevard. Canton kept its slate clean as Sonny Warren struck out 12 Lee Edwards batters as the Maroons opened their 1956 season. The Black Bears outthrew the visitors by only 7-6, but seven Lee Edwards errors contributed to the visitors' downfall.

Dewayne Milner and Jerry Raxer paced the Canton nine with two hits apiece. Moore and Sevier got a pair each for the Maroons.

At Bethel, Blue Demon pitcher Robert Capps kept Christ School well in check in all but the second innings in winning, 9-4. The visitors scored three of their four runs in the second.

Capps whiffed nine Greenies and helped his own cause by driving in two runs, while Clyde Duckett drove in three more. Harold Queen got two hits in three appearances at the plate for Bethel.

Waynesville ... 112 000 4-8 10 1 Brevard ... 000 000 0-0 6 5 Mitchell and Hill; Brown, Howard (5) and Cabe. L.—Brown.

raised another $500. It is expected that proceeds from the costume band concert will put the campaign goal over the top.

In the summer of 1953, the Waynesville band went to the Lions convention in Chicago, where John L. Stickleby of Charlotte was installed as third vice president of Lions International. The Miami convention will represent a "climax" for North Carolina Lions with Stickleby going in as president of the organization. More than 3,000 Tar Heel Lions are expected to be on hand for the event.

The trip to Miami will be the fourth out-of-state trip for WTHS musicians in recent years. Last year the orchestra went to New Orleans, while the band journeyed to Bristol, Va.-Tenn. for the Southeastern Band Festival.

Frank M. Davis: "Not only from the economic standpoint but from every other phase of living and life, the completion of the Pigeon River Road will mean more to Western North Carolina than we at the present time can conceive. Its relationship to the Park, to industries, to the great religious assembly grounds, will make life more abundant."

Jerry Rogers: "Personally I think it is one of the greatest things that has happened to Haywood County and the western part of North Carolina in a decade."

J. B. Siler: "I think it is the greatest thing since the Park."
