Mrs. Noland Is Speaker At Garden Club

Mrs. Hugh Noland, who has received wide recognition for her herb garden, was the guest speaker at a meeting of the Skyland Garden Club Thursday at The Lodge. She discussed the growing of herbs and exhibited cuttings from her garden. She also distributed plants to the members. Mrs. Noland was presented a gift following her talk. During the business hour, with Mrs. Frank Worthington presiding, the group decided to place a shadow box in the Hazelwood school before the opening of the fall term. Mrs. Ralph Dickson and Mrs. Paul Davis were named delegates to the state garden club convention to be held in Charlotte in May. Hostesses were Mrs. H. S. Winter and Mrs. Wayne Dietz. Mrs. W. M. Whisenand and her daughter and granddaughter, Miss Dorothy Whisenand and Joy Duvall, and Mrs. M. R. Whisenand left this week for Lorado, Texas where they will spend two weeks as guests of Capt. and Mrs. Harry Falls. Mrs. Falls is also a daughter of Mrs. W. M. Whisenand. They will be accompanied home by Joy's mother, Mrs. Ted Duvall, who has been visiting Capt. and Mrs. Falls for the past month.

Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick, Miss Robins Miller, Mrs. C. S. Crofoot, and Mrs. Malcolm Williamson made up a party spending the weekend in Atlanta. Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Miss Miller were guests of their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David Miller in Druid Hills.

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH LEE MASHBURN, JR. were married last Saturday in the Riverside Baptist Church. The bride is the former Miss Emma Sue Huskey. (Paul's Studio Photo).

Emma Sue Huskey Weds Joseph Lee Mashburn, Jr.

Miss Emma Sue Huskey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Huskey of Canton, Rt. 3, became the bride of Joseph Lee Mashburn, Jr. of Candler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lee Mashburn of Cleveland, Tenn., Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in the Riverside Baptist Church. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Thomas E. Erwin and the Rev. Paul Grogan. Mrs. J. Edgar Burnett presented a program of vocal selections accompanied by Miss Grace Erwin. The bride wore a gown of candlelight satin and English tulle designed with a strapless bodice, satin jacket with long sleeves ending in points over the hands, and an overskirt of three graduated tiers of tulle. Her ballerina length veil of imported illusion was attached to a Juliet cap of openwork illusion tubing encircled with forged-me-nots and she carried a white orchid with ribbon streamers on a white Bible.

Miss Barbara Jean Burnett of Lake Logan, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a sleeveless dress of powder blue printed nylon with fitted bodice and a bouffant pleated skirt, a headress of light blue carnations, white accessories and carried a colonial bouquet of blue carnations with accents of bridal wreath and ribbon streamers. William S. Morgan of Candler, Rt. 1, served as best man and Marvin Guy, also of Candler, Rt. 1, and W. A. Huskey, Jr., brother of the bride, ushered.

A reception followed the ceremony in the home of the bride's parents with Mrs. Paul Harkins, Mrs. Harold Mills, sister of the bride, Mrs. Dale Christopher of Candler, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. William Green, Jr., of Hazelwood assisting in serving. For their wedding trip to Tennessee the bride wore a navy blue linen suit with white accessories and the orchid corsage detached from her Bible. Upon their return they will reside at 50 Minoa Dr., West Asheville.

Mrs. Mashburn is a graduate of Bethel High School and Blanton's Business College. She is employed in the office of American Enka Corp. Mr. Mashburn is a graduate of Candler High School and is employed in the laboratory of American Enka Corp.

Checked Fashion

By VERA WINSTON
CHECKS have checked in smartly this season and are appearing as the main theme or as trim on almost every type of attire. This one is a sheath and is checked with its own little cape-collared short jacket. The slender dress is of gray on gray checked tissue woolen, its stark line barely broken by deep slit pockets at the sides. The jacket is also of gray checked woolen but in a heavier texture and a bolder check, and has another collar standing away from the neck above the cape collar. It is buttoned snugly from throat to its waist-length edge.
