

Mrs. Colkitt Is New DAR Chapter Regent

Mrs. Ben Colkitt was elected regent of the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at a meeting Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. David Hyatt. Mrs. W. A. Hyatt was hostess.

Elected to serve with Mrs. Colkitt were Mrs. Hugh Leach, vice regent; Mrs. J. W. Killian, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Osborne, corresponding secretary; Mrs. A. R. Riegg, treasurer; Mrs. T. L. Gwyn, registrar; Mrs. J. H. Howell, Sr., parliamentarian; Mrs. Ramsey Buchanan, historian; Mrs. L. E. Wiggins, chaplain; and Miss Mary Reed Moore, librarian.

Mrs. M. G. Stamey, guest speaker, was introduced by Mrs. Killian. She discussed the life of Thomas Jefferson and told of his fight for education in the Assembly of Virginia.

The national DAR magazine was reviewed by Miss Louise Beville. Mrs. James L. Elwood, outgoing regent, conducted the business. The chapter voted to use all funds left in the treasury to bind genealogical records in the Haywood County Library in memory of Mrs. J. R. Boyd.

Tribute was paid to Mrs. Harry Marshall, who has served as registrar since 1940.

Mrs. J. W. Killian exhibited the scrapbook made by Miss Patsy Leatherwood, which won honorable mention in the state contest.

A tea hour followed the meeting. Mrs. R. L. Prevost and Mrs. Elwood presided at the tea table, which was centered with an arrangement of pink gladioli.

Guests were Miss Nancy Killian, Mrs. C. S. Crofoot, and Mrs. Stamey.

SYLVIA CAMLIN

THREE HAYWOOD COUNTY GIRLS have been chosen as attendants to the Queen in May Day festivities at Western Carolina College Saturday, May 12. They are Sylvia Camlin of Lake Junaluska, Maid of Honor; Mary Jo Cole of Clyde; and Nancy Francis of Waynesville. Miss Camlin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Camlin of Lake Junaluska, and is a junior at Western Carolina College. Her selection as Maid of Honor in this year's May Court is the latest in a long line of beauty honors, and marks her third year in the May Court at WCC. Last summer she was elected Miss Lake Junaluska, and also served as a member of the queen's court at the Hendersonville Apple Harvest Festival. Later she was sponsored by the Waynesville Jaycees in the annual "Queen for Cotton" contest in Clayton. On the campus she is a member of the Marshal's Club, Woman's House Government board, and Future Teachers of America. Miss Cole, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Cole of Clyde, is a senior at WCC, majoring in Home Economics. She was a member of the May Court last year, and has held many important positions on the campus, being now a member of the Student Senate. She is listed on the Honor Roll and the Dean's List, and this year was selected for recognition in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." Miss Francis is a senior at WCC, having transferred this year from Greensboro College. She sang the leading role in a music camp operetta last summer, and during the regular school year has been soloist with the College Chorus and organist at the Sylva Methodist Church. Last month she gave her senior recital in voice and piano. She is a member of the Student Union Entertainment Committee, and in the senior superlatives was voted most talented girl in the class. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Roy Francis of Waynesville.

MARY JO COLE

Committee, and in the senior superlatives was voted most talented girl in the class. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Roy Francis of Waynesville.

Colorful May Day Event Set For May 12 At WCC

May Day plans at Western Carolina College have been announced by Barbara Shaver of Canton, general chairman, and Arnold Penland of Arden, director of the musical production. They are working with a faculty committee composed of Dean of Women Frieda Griener and Misses Alice Benton and Helen Hartshorn.

The program will be held at 4 p.m. May 12. Penland said the crowning of the Queen will be preceded by an abridged version of Gilbert and Sullivan's "H.M.S. Pinafore," and that the cast for this operetta will be announced later.

Both the operetta and coronation will take place on Woodland Stage, a natural bowl near the center of the campus surrounded by trees and shrubbery and a backdrop of evergreens. This stage is the traditional site of the May Day program.

The Day Student Council will sponsor a formal dance Saturday evening in the gallery of Hunter Library to climax the day's activities.

Miss Marcia Williams of Enka is May Queen, and Sylvia Camlin of Lake Junaluska is Maid of Honor. Members of the court are: Seniors—Barbara Nichols of Pilot Mountain, Bunny Broome of Glenville, Mary Jo Cole of Clyde; and Nancy Francis of Waynesville.

Juniors—Julia Moody of Franklin; Harriett Mashburn Parker of Cullowhee; and Joyce Nicholson of Sylva.

Sophomores—Pat Spencer of Valdesa; Mary Jo Bumgarner of Candler; and Martha Bramlett of Asheville.

Freshmen—Jean and June Wolfe, twins, of Billmore.
