B and PW Club Has Program On United Nations

A program on the United Nations was presented by members of the International Relations Committee at the regular meeting of the Waynesville Business and Professional Women's Club Tuesday night at the Lodge. The role of the individual citizen in the United Nations was discussed, and a film, "The Children," produced by the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund, was shown.

The United Nations theme was carried out in the table decorations which centered around a globe and the flags of the member nations of the UN. Mrs. Rebekah Murray, Miss Eula Patterson and Miss Elaine Gill were in charge of the program.

Mrs. Rubye Bryson, president, presided during the business session. The club voted to sponsor the film, "Miracle in the Rain" when it plays at the Strand Theatre May 6, 7 and 8. Tickets will be sold in advance by club members.

Mrs. Grace Stamey was elected chairman of the nominating committee, comprised of Miss Mary Cornwell and Mrs. Frances Rose White. The State convention of B and PW Clubs was announced for June 8 to 10 in Winston-Salem.

The next meeting will be a covered dish supper at Camp Junaluska on May 22.
