

Beta Sigma Phi Chapters Hold Founders' Banquet

Founders' Day of Beta Sigma Phi sorority will be celebrated tonight by local chapters Alpha Theta and Xi Omicron with a dinner at the Towne House at which Admiral W. N. Thomas will be guest speaker.

At the same time Alpha Theta chapter will install officers for 1956-57 and seven members will receive the Ritual of Jewels Degree.

New officers are Mrs. Herb Turner, president; Mrs. Donald Morrow, vice-president; Mrs. Arthur Paul Evans, recording secretary; Miss Maggie Woody, corresponding secretary and Miss Elaine Francis, treasurer. Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn will serve for the third year as social sponsor.

Receiving their pins in the Ritual of Jewels will be Mrs. John Penny, Mrs. Bob Francis, Mrs. Carroll Cabe, Mrs. Jim Jeter, Miss Woody, Miss Francis and Miss Mozelle Limer.

On May 12, the Xi Omicron chapter will celebrate Exemplar Day with a dinner meeting, installation of officers and reception of members who have completed their study for the Exemplar Degree.

Also during May the chapters jointly will assist in the Cancer drive. They hope to plan a year-round service and educational program in connection with the American Cancer Society.

MRS. BOBBY REED MEASE

Mrs. Mease is the former Miss Martha Ann Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Russell of Route 3, Waynesville. She was married Saturday evening in the Bethel Baptist Church.

Martha Ann Russell Is Bride Of B. R. Mease

Miss Martha Ann Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus H. Russell of Route 3, Waynesville, became the bride of Bobby Reed Mease, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mease of Canton, in the Bethel Baptist Church Saturday, April 28, at 7:30 p.m.

The Rev. Thomas E. Erwin, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony and a program of music was presented by Miss Martha Jean Kelly, pianist, and Hugh K. Terrell, Jr., soloist, both of Canton.

The altar was decorated with palms interspersed with branched candelabra and floor vases of white gladioli.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of imported Chantilly lace and net over satin, designed with strapless bodice and matching jacket with long tapered sleeves. Her veil of illusion was attached to a tiara of lilies-of-the-valley and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. James E. Harris of Waynesville, sister of the bride was matron of honor. She wore a ballerina-length dress of mint green net over taffeta with a small matching hat.

Susan Moody Will Be Hostess To CAR

Susan Moody will be hostess at a meeting of the Joseph Howell Society, Children of the American Revolution, in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Moody on Jonathan Creek, Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

A program of music will be presented by Cathey Massie, Karen Smathers, and Betty Owen, after which the members will take a hike.

She carried a bouquet of tulips in rainbow colors.

The bridesmaids were Miss Emily Michal of Canton and Miss Cloe Garren, cousin of the bride, of Canton. Their dresses were of pink net and taffeta, similar in design to that of the matron of honor, and they wore matching bandeaux. Their bouquets were of mixed spring flowers.

James Ray Mease of Canton served as best man for his brother and ushers were James E. Harris of Waynesville and Neal Stamey of Canton.

A reception was held at the church following the ceremony. Assisting were Mrs. James Medford, Mrs. Ray Frizzell, Mrs. Joe Russell, all of Waynesville, Mrs. Welch Singleton, Mrs. Kenneth Lowe and Miss Ocie Davis of Canton, and Mrs. Donald Medford of Brevard. The bride was graduated from Bethel High School and Blanton's Business College and is now employed in the office of Dayton Rubber Company.

Mr. Mease was graduated from Bethel High School and attended North Carolina State College, Raleigh and Western Carolina College at Cullowhee. He is presently employed with the Junaluska Supply Company at Lake Junaluska.

The couple will make their home on the Pigeon Road, Canton.

Canton Garden Clubs Hold Regular Meets

Regular meetings of three Canton garden clubs were held last week.

The Town and Country Garden Club held a dinner meeting Monday night at the Towne House in Waynesville.

Mrs. Donald W. Randolph, newly installed president, presided and presented a gift to the retiring president, Mrs. Carl E. Powell.

Mrs. William Free was in charge of the program. She introduced Hall B. Whitworth of Canton who discussed the "Litterburg Campaign".

Mrs. John Lee Jones spoke on the "Aims, Objects, and Principles of the National Garden Club".

The Canton Garden Club met Tuesday morning in the home of Mrs. Clyde R. Hoey, "Sunnywood," on the Asheville Road, Mrs. C. H. Eskridge was associate hostess.

During the business session announcement was made of the N.C. Garden Club State Convention to be held in Charlotte May 14, 15, 16, and 17, and of the district meeting to be held in Asheville September 12.

Mrs. Charles Branson, garden therapy chairman, announced that magazines and flowers were placed in the Haywood County Hospital during the past month. Mrs. Hoey stated that two books, "The Care and Feeding of Garden Plants," published by the American Society for Horticultural Science, and "Japanese Flower Arrangements" by Allen, have been placed in the Canton Library by the club.

Schedules for the annual flower show and club yearbooks were distributed. Mrs. James B. Hurley gave a report of the Junior Garden Club.

At the conclusion of the meeting Mrs. Hoey displayed a tray of wild flowers, ferns, and moss. Later the group made a tour of the Hoey wild flower gardens.

Mrs. Clyde Hawkins of Asheville was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Rhododendron Garden Club Tuesday morning in the home of Mrs. J. E. Wilkinson on Skyland Terrace.

Mrs. Hawkins discussed flower arrangements and conducted a demonstration on the subject.

The group completed plans for an Iris Flower Show to be held in May in the assembly room of the Canton library.

Mrs. T. R. Barnes was a guest.
