Things are really buzzing around CHS! The play cast for the senior play, "The Little Dog Laughed," is really in high gear preparing for the play tonight, May 3.

Also, the junior class members are breaking their necks in order to get ready for the Junior-Senior Prom, Friday night.

For our chapel program Friday, we had the Asheville-Biltmore College Showcase. Canton High has always been proud of its talent, but Friday we were really proud!

All seniors are excited about receiving their calling cards. The whole week has been spent exchanging and giving away cards.

On Monday morning, we had the pleasure of hearing Rev. Hanna from Lafayette, Ga. He was a very witty and enjoyable speaker.

CHS is proud of Robert Deas, who won one of the 500 Merit Scholarships given to seniors in the United States.

Officers of the Community Development Program will meet on Saturday at 7:30 p.m. at the home of L. V. Messer, instead of at the Elizabeth Chapel Methodist church as previously planned.
