"Honor Thy Father And Thy Mother"

If you have not already done so, speak your everlasting love for those who did so much for you. Do it in a cemetery that allows you the priceless privilege of erecting a beautiful and distinctive monument rather than in one which, for reasons of its own, restricts you to a metal marker set flush with the ground.

As the years go by you will realize that nothing keeps memories more beautifully alive than a tribute spoken in words of imperishable granite or marble.

The Conversion of Saul

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Acts 9:1-31.

Saul, set on persecuting the Christians, went to the high priest, asking him for letters to the Damascus synagogue so that he might see if any followers of Jesus were there, that he might bring them back bound.

Nearing Damascus, a light from heaven shone about Saul. He fell to the earth when he heard a voice saying, "Saul, why persecutest thou Me?" Saul rose, trembling and astonished, saying, "Lord, what wilt Thou have me do?"

"Arise and go into the city," the Lord told him, "and it shall be told thee what thou must do." Saul arose, and his companions led him into Damascus. For three days and nights he was without sight.

Ananias, a disciple, was told by Christ to find Saul, for He had chosen him to spread the gospel. Ananias did as he was told, and Saul's sight was restored by him.

MEMORY VERSE—Romans 1:16.

The Golden Text

Conversion of Saul.

"I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ; for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth."—Romans 1:16.

Bible Words for Today

PHILIPPIANS 3:14—"I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus." (RSV)

What is the purpose of the Christian church? What goals is it trying to reach? We in the church need to constantly ask ourselves these questions.

How do we judge the effectiveness of our church? Is success based on the number on the church roll? Do we take excessive pride in successful financial campaigns? Do we ever stop to think whether our many activities are meaningful or if they are just busy work? Are we being helped at our points of need?

The church must state its objectives clearly. It must press forward toward the supreme goal which is the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. Not only personal lives but society as well would be redeemed if we would apply Paul's earnestness and sincerity of purpose to the solving of our problems—personal problems, problems of the family, education, conservation of resources, industry, government, and international relations.
