The Conversion of Saul

BENT ON PERSECUTION, SAUL IS CHOSEN TO SPREAD THE GOSPEL OF CHRIST

Scripture—Acts 9:1-31.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
OUR LESSON today tells the dramatic story of Saul, who had seen Stephen die, consenting to his martyrdom, changed from a fire-breathing antagonist of the gospel of Jesus into a devout disciple who became the instrument of spreading Christ's gospel over the then known world.
Can't you picture Saul, "breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord," going to the high priest asking for letters to the synagogue in the important city of Damascus in order to discover if there were men and women in that city who were converts to this new religion. If he found them, he planned to bring them all, bound, to Jerusalem.
As Saul and his companions neared Damascus, "suddenly there shined around him a light from heaven." Saul fell off his mount and heard a voice saying, "Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou Me?"
Saul said, "Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest." Saul then knew that Jesus was church in Jerusalem, and had the authority from the chief priests to bind all who called on the Lord's name.

However, the Lord told Ananias, "Go thy way; for he is a chosen vessel unto Me, to bear My name before the Gentiles and kings, and the children of Israel; For I will show him how great things he must suffer for My name's sake."
So Ananias went as he was told, found Saul, and put both hands on him, saying, "Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight and be filled with the Holy Ghost."
"And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales, and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized."
Ananias' manner of addressing Saul, of whom he had heard nothing but evil, was truly in the Christian spirit calling him "Brother Saul."
After Saul regained his strength he spent some days with the Damascus disciples, then preached Christ in the synano mere man, but the Messiah that the Jews had long been expecting. Trembling and astonished, Saul said, "Lord, what wilt Thou have me do?" The Lord answered, "Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do."

The men with Saul stood shaken and speechless as they heard the voice but saw no one. As Saul rose, they realized that he was blinded, so they led him into the city. Three days Saul lay without sight, and neither did he eat nor drink.
In Damascus there lived a disciple named Ananias, and the Lord came to him in a vision and said, "Ananias," and he replied "Behold, I am here, Lord." He was told to go into the street called Straight (still standing in this ancient city), and ask for a man called Saul of Tarsus. Saul had been praying, the Lord told Ananias, and had a vision of Ananias coming to make him see again, as he had been stricken blind.
Ananias said he had heard much of this man, that he was evil, having persecuted the gogues, and all were amazed at his change of heart, but the enemies of Christ decided to kill him. They watched the gates of the city day and night, but Saul's friends took him by night and let him down by the city wall in a basket.

When Saul arrived in Jerusalem he tried to join the disciples there but they were suspicious of him. Barnabas, however, brought him to the apostles and told them what had happened to him and how he had preached boldly in Christ's name, so they accepted him and all the churches throughout all Judea, Galilee and Samaria were glad.
Saul or Paul, as he was later known, was blind for only three days, but there are thousands of persons in the world who are permanently blind. For them the American Bible society has sent 18 Braille volumes of the St. James version of the Bible to the Paris Braille Lending library in Paris under the sponsorship of the American Foundation for Overseas Blind, whose counselor in international relations is Miss Helen Keller.

Light beyond the shadows

People who see the Light that shines beyond the present shadows can walk safely along the way of life. Those who stumble in darkness and fear are the people who lack the vision of faith.

A man named Saul of Tarsus groped in the darkness of the pagan world. His heart was filled with hate and he saw them stone the servants of God. Then he saw the Light and became a new man.

The skies of life are often filled with clouds and storm. Strife and hatred, selfishness and meanness, suffering and despair, rob the day of its brightness and fill the world with woe.

But those who have the penetrating vision of faith need fear no harm. If they keep their eyes fixed on the Light that lies beyond the shadows and trust in God, they may walk in the perfect security of faith.

The blackness of night cannot quench the Light of faith; the sweeping storms of adversity cannot blot it out. It shines on undimmed into the perfect day, when the storms depart and the shadows fade away.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For the sake of his children's sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
