

GO TO CHURCH SERVICES SOMEWHERE EVERY SUNDAY

The Golden Text

Peter in the house of Cornelius.

"God is no respecter of persons; but in every nation he that feareth Him and worketh righteousness, is accepted with Him."—Acts 10:34, 35.

Preaching to the Gentiles

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Acts 9:32—11:18.

Peter began a missionary journey, coming to Lydda where some believers lived. There he found a man named Aeneas who had been bed-ridden for eight years. Peter told him that Jesus Christ would make him whole, and he arose, healed.

At Joppa Peter found a fine, charitable disciple named Tabitha had died, and her friends were grieving. Peter turned everyone out of the room, then knelt and prayed, and Tabitha opened her eyes, took Peter by the hand and rose up.

Cornelius, a centurion and devout, was told by an angel to send for Peter at Joppa. Cornelius sent three men to Simon's house where they found Peter. He went with them. Seeing him, Cornelius threw himself at the apostle's feet.

As Peter preached to Cornelius, the Roman captain, and his household and friends, the Holy Ghost fell upon them. Peter said, "Of a truth, I perceive that God is no respecter of persons." MEMORY VERSE—Acts 10:34, 35.

SPEAK YOUR LOVE in words of imperishable granite or marble

A monument of granite or marble is a symbol of devotion that will forever remain beautiful, visible. Reverently and eloquently, it will record for posterity the warmth of your family love.

If you have not already so spoken your sentiment, do it now as a family. Don't leave it for someone to do alone. Choose your family plot in a cemetery that allows you the privilege of erecting the traditionally American type of memorial—a distinctive upright monument.

As local dealer-members of the Monument Institute of America, we are qualified to assist you in selecting a stone that meets both your desires and your budget. Come in and see us now.
