status and requirements of air power. This, to a certain degree, was one purpose of our special inquiry. We have shown the degree which our air progress has lagged, and General LeMay's testimony has shown that he feels strongly that the Russians are overtaking Uncle Sam in air power. As I view it, the people should know the facts about the nation's air power with the exception of that information which must of necessity be kept classified in order not to assist a potential enemy. There has been more confusion than ought to be over what has been happening to our air defense, and I feel that the committee is rendering a useful service in probing to find out what the facts are.

It was a pleasure for me to accompany my colleague, Senator Joseph O'Mahoney of Wyoming, to North Carolina last week-end. He spoke to a meeting of the North Carolina Automobile Dealers Association in Pinehurst. We had a good visit, and I regret that it was necessary for both of us to hurry back to vote on a bill. I would have enjoyed showing him more of our famous North Carolina hospitality.

Dr. Hardy's Brother Dies in Tennessee

Clyde B. Hardy, brother of Dr. W. N. Hardy of Waynesville, died Monday afternoon at his home in Pulaski, Tenn. after a long illness. He was 48.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon in Pulaski. Dr. Hardy left Tuesday to attend the services.

RIVERS & HARBORS
The other week I wrote about the Rivers & Harbors Congress soon to meet in Washington. The meeting was held and many of our State's leaders attended the affair here. Legislation of this nature is vital to our State, and unity of action is an effective way to proceed on projects of this nature.

N. C. BANKERS will hear Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest, treasurer of the United States, at their 60th annual convention, this weekend as they sail from Norfolk for a 7-day visit to Havana and Nassau.
