I LEARN FROM WATCHING MAMA

The school of experience has a wide reputation, and many are those who are proud to be its alumni.

But there is another school, an elementary school. And though it's less heralded, it turns out eager scholars year after year.

It hasn't really any name, and certainly no ivy-covered halls. Classes are held in the students' own homes. And the tuition is a wealth of love contributed by pupil and teacher alike.

But this is the best preparatory school in the world. For whatever it teaches has a place in the life of its graduates forever.

And the most encouraging sign on the spiritual horizons of America is the greater emphasis now being placed on the Bible, prayer, and religious education in the school of "watching mama!"

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The Church in Antioch

IT BECAME THE FIRST FLOURISHING BODY OF CHRISTIANS OUTSIDE JERUSALEM

Scripture—Acts 11:19—12:24

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
THE BEGINNING of the Christian church in the city of Antioch is the subject of today's lesson, and it is a most interesting one.

Antioch was called the third city of the Roman empire, known as "Beautiful." The martyred Stephen had traveled to Phoenicia, an ancient country famed for its maritime ventures, north of Palestine; Cyprus, a large island in the Mediterranean, and Antioch, but he preached only to Jews.

Macedonians and Greeks were the principal inhabitants of Antioch. However, they got along well with the Jewish inhabitants, who were allowed the rights of citizenship.

As the disciples of Christ scattered, some men from Cyprus and Cyrene who spoke Greek came to Antioch and preached the word of Christ to the Greeks whose reign extended from 41 to 54 A.D.

Now the king, Herod Agrippa II, decided to persecute these Christians in Jerusalem. He had already killed James, brother of John, and now he had Peter seized, chained and thrown into prison.

Soldiers were appointed to guard him and see that he did not escape, and later Herod planned to bring him out and hand him over to the people who hated all Christians. Peter's companions in the church prayed fervently and continually for help to free him.

Sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, Peter was roused by a bright light. An angel told him to arise quickly, and as he did so the chains fell from him.

Then the angel told Peter to put on his sandals and garments and follow him. They went safely

MEMORY VERSE

"I have showed you all things, how so laboring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how He said, It is more blessed to give than to receive."
—Acts 20:35.

there, making many converts, "and the hand of the Lord was with them."

Tidings of this were received at Jerusalem, and Barnabas was sent to Antioch. He was "a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith, and much people were added unto the Lord" through him.

Barnabas went to Tarsus, where Saul was, and brought him back to Antioch where the two remained for a year preaching, and it was in this city that the term Christian was first applied to the followers of Christ.

To show how these early Christians acted their religion as well as professing it, a certain man named Agabus, prophesied that there would soon be a great famine in Judea. So to aid the saints in Jerusalem, the Antiochians gave, every man as he was able, of his means, and sent it to Jerusalem by Saul and Barnabas.

The Jerusalem church was poor and likely to suffer in a time of scarcity, and the famine came in the rule of the Emperor Claudius past the first and second guards to the iron prison gate, which opened of its own accord, and the angel guided him through the streets, then left him.

Coming to himself Peter went to the house of John's mother, Mary and knocked. A maid answered the knock, and was so surprised and delighted to see Peter safe that without letting him in she rushed to tell the others that Peter was there. They thought she had lost her mind, but as Peter continued knocking, they opened the door and saw him, and knew that their prayers were answered.

You can imagine the surprise and chagrin of the soldiers who had been given the task of guarding Peter. They must have been frightened, too, and well they might be, as Herod had them put to death.

Later, Herod himself met a tragic death, as you may read. While sitting on his throne in royal apparel and giving an oration, the Lord struck him down because "he gave not God the glory" due Him.
