

Ernestine Joyce Robinson Weds Robert D. Gardner

Miss Ernestine Joyce Robinson, daughter of Mrs. Ernest Robinson of Hazelwood and the late Mr. Robinson, became the bride of Robert Donald Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. James N. Gardner of Waynesville, Saturday, May 12, at 7:30 p.m. in the North Hazelwood Baptist Church.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Avery Peek, pastor of the church, assisted by the Rev. J. R. Blanton.

The vows were spoken before an arch decorated with white gladioli and fern and flanked with floor baskets of white gladioli. The altar was banked with fern interspersed with branched candelabra.

Miss Esther Mae Gibson, pianist, and Mrs. Donald Robinson, vocalist, presented a program of traditional wedding music. The candles were lighted by Donald Robinson, brother of the bride, and Geretha Gardin.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Johnny Howell Robinson, of Hazelwood. She wore a gown of Chantilly lace and imported tulle over taffeta. The fitted bodice was designed of lace with sweetheart neckline and long pointed sleeves. Her short veil fell from a headdress of handcut lace embroidered flowers and she carried a prayer book with a white orchid. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift of her great aunt.

Mrs. Ernest Snyder, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and James W. Gardner served as best man for his brother, Mrs. Snyder wore a princess style dress of pink nylon with blue picture hat and she carried a colonial bouquet of mixed flowers.

Following the ceremony the mother of the bride entertained at an informal reception in her home. Assisting were Mrs. Floyd Harrison, Mrs. Herbert Wyatt, and Mrs. Howard Passmore.

Mrs. Robinson, mother of the bride, wore a navy suit with white accessories and her corsage was of red roses. The mother of the bridegroom also wore navy with white

County ASC Organization Reports 1955 Achievements

A total of 1,611 farms in Haywood County participated in the Agricultural Conservation Program in 1955, according to the annual report just published by the county ASC.

That number of farms represented a total of 114,633 acres of all farm land, 21,253 acres of crop land, and 51,430 acres of pasture land.

The net cost share was reported at $80,499.88, the small cost-share increase at $15,665.00, and the gross cost share at $96,164.88.

Concerning the county's marketing quota program, the ASC report stated:

Tobacco and wheat were the only crops on which quotas were in effect in 1955 in Haywood County. Twenty-four farms had wheat allotments in 1955. There were 1989 burley tobacco allotments in this county in 1955. Nine farmers harvested tobacco in excess of allotment.

A total of 1,988,965 pounds of burley were marketed from 1060.27 acres planted, giving an average yield for the county of 1875 pounds per acre.

We are proud of the excellent cooperation shown by the farmers in Haywood County on the Marketing Quota Program.

During the year, according to the annual report, the ASC office:

1. Sent out approximately 35,000 pieces of mail.
  2. Had 10,000 office visits by farmers.
  3. Issued 4,800 purchase orders to farmers.
  4. Received some 3,500 telephone calls.
- During 1955, the ASC County Committee was made up of Floyd Fisher, chairman; T. C. Davis, vice chairman, and Jack Harris, regular member.
- Office Manager of the ASC office here is A. W. Ferguson.

Washington Has Their Special Definitions

By BILL WHITLEY
DICTIONARY: The bureaucracy of Washington has a language all its own. Here are a few typical definitions that are going the rounds:

Program: Any idea that can't be carried out with one phone call.

Channels: The trail left by inter-office memos.

Committee: A means of evading responsibility.

Reliable source: The guy you just met.

Informed source: The guy who just told the guy you just met.

Unimpeachable source: The guy who started the rumor in the first place.

QUOTE: Sometimes, it's mighty interesting to go back and read what big men have had to say in the way of principles, conviction, politics, and the sort.

Following is a statement from a speech made in Fresno, Calif., by Secretary of Agriculture Benson on July 6, 1953:

"I did not become Secretary of Agriculture to stand idly by while farmers suffer from high costs and falling prices."

Some people wonder why Democrats are always criticizing Benson.

Ralph Prevost and Dan Watkins spent last weekend on a fishing trip at Ft. Myers, Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Jones of Orlando, Florida have arrived to spend the summer at The Maples.

Summer Glamor Begins In Your Own Bathtub

RELAX IN THE TUB... Read a newspaper or plan the week's menus while soapsuds help beautify you.

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Beauty Editor

If you're not up to sulphur and molasses, try relaxation to help foil springtime's low ebb.

The daily bath is one of the most soothing treatments at hand for frayed nerves. Business girls will find it the perfect set-up before an evening date. Housewives may indulge while Junior and Sis are at school or napping.

If the housewife doesn't want to spare the time for this interlude in the busy day, she can justify it by doing a few chores while she bathes.

The daily meals, for the week may be planned in the tub, market lists may be organized and company menus planned.

Before climbing in to your nice lather of suds scented with bath oil if you have it, organize the things you'll need for your relaxing session.

Suction-cup a foam rubber bath pillow to the tub so it will fit under your head and shoulders. A real luxury but fun if you can afford it. Use a bath tray if you have one to hold such things as pad and pencil, morning paper, magazine, novel. Most women enjoy including an above-the-shoulders beauty treatment too, so be sure neck and face cream and pins for your hair are at hand.

A better plan however, is to apply all the goo to neck and face before you step into the tub. Hair Hollow out crusty rolls and fill with ham salad. Wrap in aluminum foil and bake in a moderate oven until hot through.

A dash of sugar, sprinkled over thin onion rings as you cook them in butter, make for good flavor. Serve with hamburgers, or steak.
