

Memorial Service Will Be Held In Henderson Church

A service will be held Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at the Crab Creek Baptist Church in Henderson County in memory of William Sentelle, Soldier of the American Revolution; Richard Sentelle, Soldier of the War of 1812; and John Banks Huggins, Soldier of the War Between the States. Mrs. Sadie S. Patton, president of the Western North Carolina Historical Society, will preside. Memorial tributes will be given by Mrs. G. C. Peebles, of the Joseph McDowell Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution; Mrs. J. V. Erskine, regent of the Unaka Chapter of the Daughters of the American Colonists; Mrs. R. N. Barber, state president of the Daughters of 1812; and descendants of John Banks Huggins.

The Rev. Richard Pace will give the invocation and members of the VFW will advance the colors. Mrs. F. B. Gardner, regent of the Joseph McDowell Chapter, DAR, will lead the pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. Mrs. Patton will speak on "Why This Meeting." A business meeting of the families will follow the program.

Dale Hall Is Feted At Lingerie Shower

Miss Dale Hall, bride-elect of June 2, was honored at a lingerie shower given last night with Mrs. Hugh Leatherwood as hostess in her home. Mixed flowers were used in decorating and informal games were played. Thirty-five guests were included. Mr. and Mrs. David S. Vandiver and son, David, Jr., of Anderson, S. C. are guests of Mrs. Vandiver's sister, Mrs. M. H. Reeves. Nothing Sells Like Newspapers

Mrs. C. S. Crofoot, who has been visiting in Gainesville, Fla., returned this week to the Le Faine Hotel where she has been a guest for the past year. She was accompanied from Florida by her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Vidal of Gainesville, who are her guests at the hotel.

HUNDREDS OF VALUES FOR EVERYONE — COME SEE, COME SAVE

MISS LOUISE ROBINSON, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Albert Robinson of Waynesville, Route 1, is engaged to Kenneth S. Breedlove, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Breedlove of Canton. The wedding is planned for next week. The bride-elect is a member of the senior class of Waynesville High School.

Canton Club Hears Talk By Louis E. Gates

The Canton Garden Club met Tuesday morning at Lake Logan Lodge, with Mrs. H. A. Helder as hostess. Twenty-two members were present, and guests were Mrs. C. A. Stone, Mrs. G. M. Trostel, and Mrs. F. R. Mease.

Louis E. Gates of Canton was the guest speaker. His subject was "Summer Mulching". Mr. Gates stated, "Mulching is the application of various materials to the soil surface to hold moisture, to prevent weed growth, to prevent erosion, to keep the ground cool, and, when decomposed, to furnish plant food."

Mrs. J. L. Reeves and Mrs. A. W. Bottoms reported on the 31st annual convention of the Garden Club of North Carolina, held recently in Charlotte.

Mrs. Roy Trammell discussed the judging of horticulture.

Blue ribbons for horticulture specimens were won by Mrs. Willis Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Clyde R. Hoey, Mrs. A. P. Cline, Mrs. James B. Hurley, Mrs. Paul Hyatt, Mrs. C. H. Eskridge, Mrs. Marvin Alexander, and Mrs. L. H. Hartshorn.

Arrangements will be placed in the Canton Library during the coming month by Mrs. Eskridge, Mrs. Fred Ferguson, Mrs. L. E. Gates, Mrs. Hartshorn, and Mrs. Helder.

Following the meeting luncheon was held.

Awards Presented To Band Members At Canton Concert

Senior members of the Canton High School band received awards at the spring concert Monday evening and in turn surprised director C. J. Manie with a gift. Mr. Manie was presented with a wrist watch by band members.

Senior award pins went to Sheila Forrister, Darrell Hawkins and Marianna Moon. Arion awards were given to George Freeman and Glenda Pressley. Drayton Shull received a part scholarship from the Stephen Foster Music Camp and Diane Thomason was given the John Phillip Sousa award.

JIM GADDIS IS WITH COUNCIL HEAD

Jim Gaddis is president of the Student Council of the Waynesville High School and participated in the coronation of the May Queen at the dance Saturday night instead of Jim Gaddy, as was incorrectly stated in The Mountaineer this week.

Mrs. J. M. Long is at home following a two weeks' visit with her brothers, Charles and Ernest Weaver, in Detroit.

Miss Linda Sloan arrived Monday from Greensboro College to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sloan. A rising senior, Miss Sloan served as chief marshal for commencement exercises at the college last weekend.

The Friendly Club had its first outing picnic of the season yesterday, May 23rd. Twenty-one townsmen in four jeeps and one truck went to Deep Gap (beyond Lickstone) on the Waynesville water shed, where they enjoyed a picnic lunch, barbecue style. After lunch they engaged in games of horse shoe and "wing pigeon" shooting.
