wood County Hospital. Jenkins was charged with failure to yield the right of way and driving on the wrong side of the road. Damage to both cars were placed at $200 each. Berry Howell, 10, colored, of the Gibsontown section of Canton escaped serious injury at 10:40 a.m. today when he was struck while riding a bicycle by a car driven by W. S. Jimison of Thickety. The accident took place near Reynolds School. Patrolman Wooten said that Howell rode his bicycle around a corner on the wrong side of the street, and added that Jimison was not at fault in the incident. The boy suffered a sprained right hand and multiple bruises and was treated at the Medical Building in Canton. Damage to the bicycle was estimated at $30 and to the car at $5. A horse was blamed for an accident on the Dellwood Road at 4:20 p.m. Saturday, involving the animal, a Trailways bus, and a tractor

Patrolman Wooten said that the bus was struck from the rear by the tractor as the bus driver attempted to avoid hitting the horse. The bus driver was identified as Walter Earl Wright, 40, of Asheville, and the operator of the tractor as Roy Lloyd Wiseman, 28, of Route 2, Spruce Pine. Damage to the bus was estimated at $500 and to the tractor at $175. The horse, owned by Lester Burgin, was valued at $100, according to the patrolman. Charles Roosevelt Massey, Route 1, Clyde, and two passengers in his car, walked away unhurt from the wreckage of his 1949 Ford on the

Wesley Creek Road at Fines Creek, after he lost control of the vehicle and it plunged 78 feet over the mountainside. With Massey were his wife and Cessie Trantham. Damage to the car was put at $250. A Marine home on leave from the Quantico, Va., base, Harold Dean Scruggs, 21, of Clyde, escaped injury at 12:30 a.m. Saturday when he lost control of his 1950 Chevrolet near Ratcliffe Cove gap, causing the car to go off the road and overturn several times down an embankment. Scruggs was charged with exceeding a safe speed and driving on the wrong side of the road by Cpl. Pritchard H. Smith. Damage to the car was estimated at $250. An accident at 4:20 p.m. Saturday on the Lake Logan road involved a 1947 Chevrolet coupe, driven by William Floyd Rogers, Route 3, Canton, which ran through a fence near Ceel School. The accident was blamed on mechanical troubles. Damage was placed at $150. Experts estimate Russia has 20,000 first line combat planes and 20,000 reserves.

Services Are Held Today For Crash Victim

Funeral services were held this afternoon in the Pleasant View Methodist Church near Franklin for Edward Charles Smythe, 47, of Canton, who was killed Friday in an automobile accident on U. S. Highway 19-23 about 12 miles west of Asheville. Burial was in the church cemetery. Smythe, an employe of Plemmons and Hyde Excavating Works at Canton, was killed instantly in a head-on collision which also took the life of James Page Jackson, 27, of Gastonia. It was reported that the force of the two cars was so great that the Smythe car stood on end. Both vehicles looked as though they had been placed in a huge vice and crushed. It was necessary to tear away parts of both vehicles before the bodies of the two drivers could be removed. Officers said that a mark on the highway indicated that the collision may have been caused by a loose or broken tie rod on the Smythe car. Smythe is survived by his wife, Mrs. Laura Trull Smythe; three sons, Charles Wesley Smythe of Candler, J. L. Smythe of the Army stationed at Ft. Devens, Mass., and James F. Smythe of the home; the mother, Mrs. Rose Smythe of Canton; four sisters, Mrs. Ralph Barnes, Mrs. Aileen Robertson, and Mrs. Gladson Haynes, all of Canton, and Mrs. Norma Olin of New York. Arrangements were under the direction of Crawford Funeral Home.

MORE ABOUT Cleanup

(Continued from Page 1) disposal facilities be brought up to standard. Also in connection with the area cleanup drive now under way, Mr. Ferguson reminded Waynesville residents that the town has an ordinance which prohibits the tacking or nailing of signs on posts or trees within the corporate limits. It has also been announced that the deadline on a school essay contest on "Clean Up, Paint Up, Fix Up" had been extended through Tuesday. Winners of prizes to be awarded in the contest will be announced in Thursday's Mountaineer.

Lost Mail

ROY, Utah (AP)—This town recently installed a new air raid siren. But the signal bounces off a row of buildings and it can be heard in only half the town. But residents of Hooper, three miles west, can hear it all over their town.

Miss Rogers Dies At 68

Miss Elizabeth Rogers, 68, of Lake Junaluska, a retired teacher, died Friday morning in the Haywood County Hospital after a lingering illness. She taught in Haywood County schools and at Cramerton until she retired five years ago. Miss Rogers was a daughter of the late A. T. and Lorena Davis Rogers of Haywood County. She was a graduate of the old Davenport College at Hickory and was a member of the Methodist Church. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at Mt. Zion Methodist Church. The Rev. A. R.
