

World's No. 3 Softball Team To Play Mountaineer Little League Games Start Next Week

Games Set For Friday, Saturday

The Yankees are coming again to Canton and it looks like they'll be even more formidable than the last team from the cool side of the Mason-Dixon Line—Bart's Bar of Columbus, Ohio, who opposed the Champion Y team weekend before last.

The Southern regional champions beat the Buckeyes three out of four, but they probably will have to go all out to finish on top with this week's powerful opponents—the Trenton Democratic Club of Baltimore, Md.

The visitors finished in the No. 3 spot in the World Softball Tournament last year and have been Central Atlantic regional champions for the past six years—gained on 24 straight wins in tournament competition.

Heading the Marylanders are Bertoloni, a catcher who made the All-World team last year, and Hemphill, a pitcher, who has hurled two no-hit games this year—including one perfect game. In those two no-hitters, he struck out 27 men.

The Baltimore bombshells have played eight games this season and have won all of them.

The visitors will be at Canton for two doubleheaders—Friday and Saturday nights—with the first games starting at 7:30 p.m.

Champion, which now has an 18-2 mark for the season, will be pinning its hopes on its trio of no-hit pitchers and some timely hitting from the boys at the plate.

Thus far, Wade Garrett has pitched three no-hitters and Nazi Miller and Carroll Waldrop have one each. Both Garrett and Miller are still undefeated.

Aerial Deer Hunting
ROY, N. M. (AP)—Ranchers Don Pritchard and J. O. Campsey complained to the State Game Department that deer were damaging wheat and trampling soil into dust.

The Wildlife Service provided aerial rockets to scare the deer. The deer got scared. But the second night, the deer were mildly startled, and the third night they apparently enjoyed the show.

Now the department has issued permits to the two ranchers so they can take 10 deer each, of either sex. The meat goes to the state school lunch program.

Of the 66 players listed on the West Virginia University football roster, 38 are native West Virginians. Only four live more than a 75 mile drive from the campus.

Welterweight boxing champion Carmen Basilio served 33 months in the Marines.

12 Riding Events On Schedule At Canton Horse Show Sunday Afternoon

Haywood County's first horse show of 1956 will be held at the Canton show ring at 1:30 p.m. Sunday under sponsorship of the Bit and Spur Riding Club of Canton.

Manager for the show will be W. W. "Bill" Morgan.

Twelve different events will be featured at the show, including those for ponies, open jumping horses, pleasure horse, three-gaited mounts, working hunters (outside course) palominos, walkers, tandem pairs of hunters jumping abreast in ring, tandem pairs of hunters jumping out and back into ring, five-gaited mounts, western riding horses, and class pairs.

One trophy and four ribbons will be awarded in each of the events except those for pairs, in which two trophies and eight ribbons will be given. Entry fees are $1 per horse.

Assisting Mr. Morgan with the show will be Fred Mayer of Asheville, judge of the gaited and walking horses; George Webster of Tryon, hunter and jumped judge, and Samuel R. Bingham, Jr., of Asheville, ringmaster.

On the committee in charge of arrangements for the show are Blaine Medford, Bill Turner, Charles Mease, W. L. Turner, Gunnar Bohndahl, T. L. Bramlett, Margaret Perry, L. W. Cooper, Wayne Stamey, and Carl Green.

The Bit and Spur Riding Club was organized in January and has 38 members from Canton, Waynesville, and Bethel. Officers are Blaine Medford, president; Bill Turner, vice president; Mrs. Charles Mease, secretary, and Gunnar Bohndahl, treasurer.

In addition to its show Sunday, the club also plans other shows later in the summer and a dinner party and dance during the Christmas holidays.

Jockey Lost 85 Pounds To Make Comeback

BOWIE, Md. (AP)—Women take off weight for appearance. Johnny Tammara did it to make a living. He took off 85 pounds—from 200 to 115—to make a comeback as a jockey.

"It was a simple thing"—he says. "Two soft boiled eggs for breakfast. Two soft boiled eggs for lunch. Maybe half a boiled chicken for supper. Never any sugar."

Tammara gave up riding horses in 1951. He had a new car, a herd of cattle, money in the bank and a wife and three children.

Now his car is not so new, he has no farm or cattle and very little in the bank. He still has a wife, but the number of children has increased to five.

"Bad luck, some bad investments," he explains for his reversed financial condition.

Dayton Rubber Softballers Lose Contest, 4 to 3

Dayton Rubber's team in the Haywood County Softball League lost out last night to the strong Champion Mills squad, 4-3, in the first game played at Canton.

Frank "Lefty" Hyde was credited with the win, while Johnny Phillips of Dayton was charged with the loss. Manuel Hooper was behind the plate for the rubber-makers.

The only circuit blow of the game was hit by a Champion player—Joe Rhinehart, a Canton High baseball star this season.

Dayton Rubber, which won its first game, 21-8, over Calvary Baptist last week, will meet the Champion Y Juniors at 7 p.m. next Tuesday.

'Carousel' Starts Run At Strand Sunday Afternoon

"Carousel," which Twentieth Century-Fox chose as the vehicle to introduce its new CinemaScope 55 process, has been considered Rodgers and Hammerstein's finest musical since it was first introduced on the New York stage in 1945, although "Oklahoma," "South Pacific" and "The King and I" stand high on their list of collaborations. The picture will have its premiere here on Sunday at the Strand Theatre.

In the CinemaScope 55 version of "Carousel" all the lovely music, original lyrics, and clever ballets that characterize a Rodgers and Hammerstein musical have been retained by Producer Henry Ephron and Director Henry King. In developing the screen play Mr. Ephron and his wife, Phoebe, have kept intact the tragic, comic fantasy of Molnar's "Liliom," which formed the basis for the original stage production. It is the strength of the book in this vehicle that makes it such a highly entertaining musical, critics everywhere agree.

All 12 of the St. John's University basketball squad come from New York City.
