The Church in Europe

THE SPIRIT OF JESUS SENDS PAUL INTO NEW FIELDS

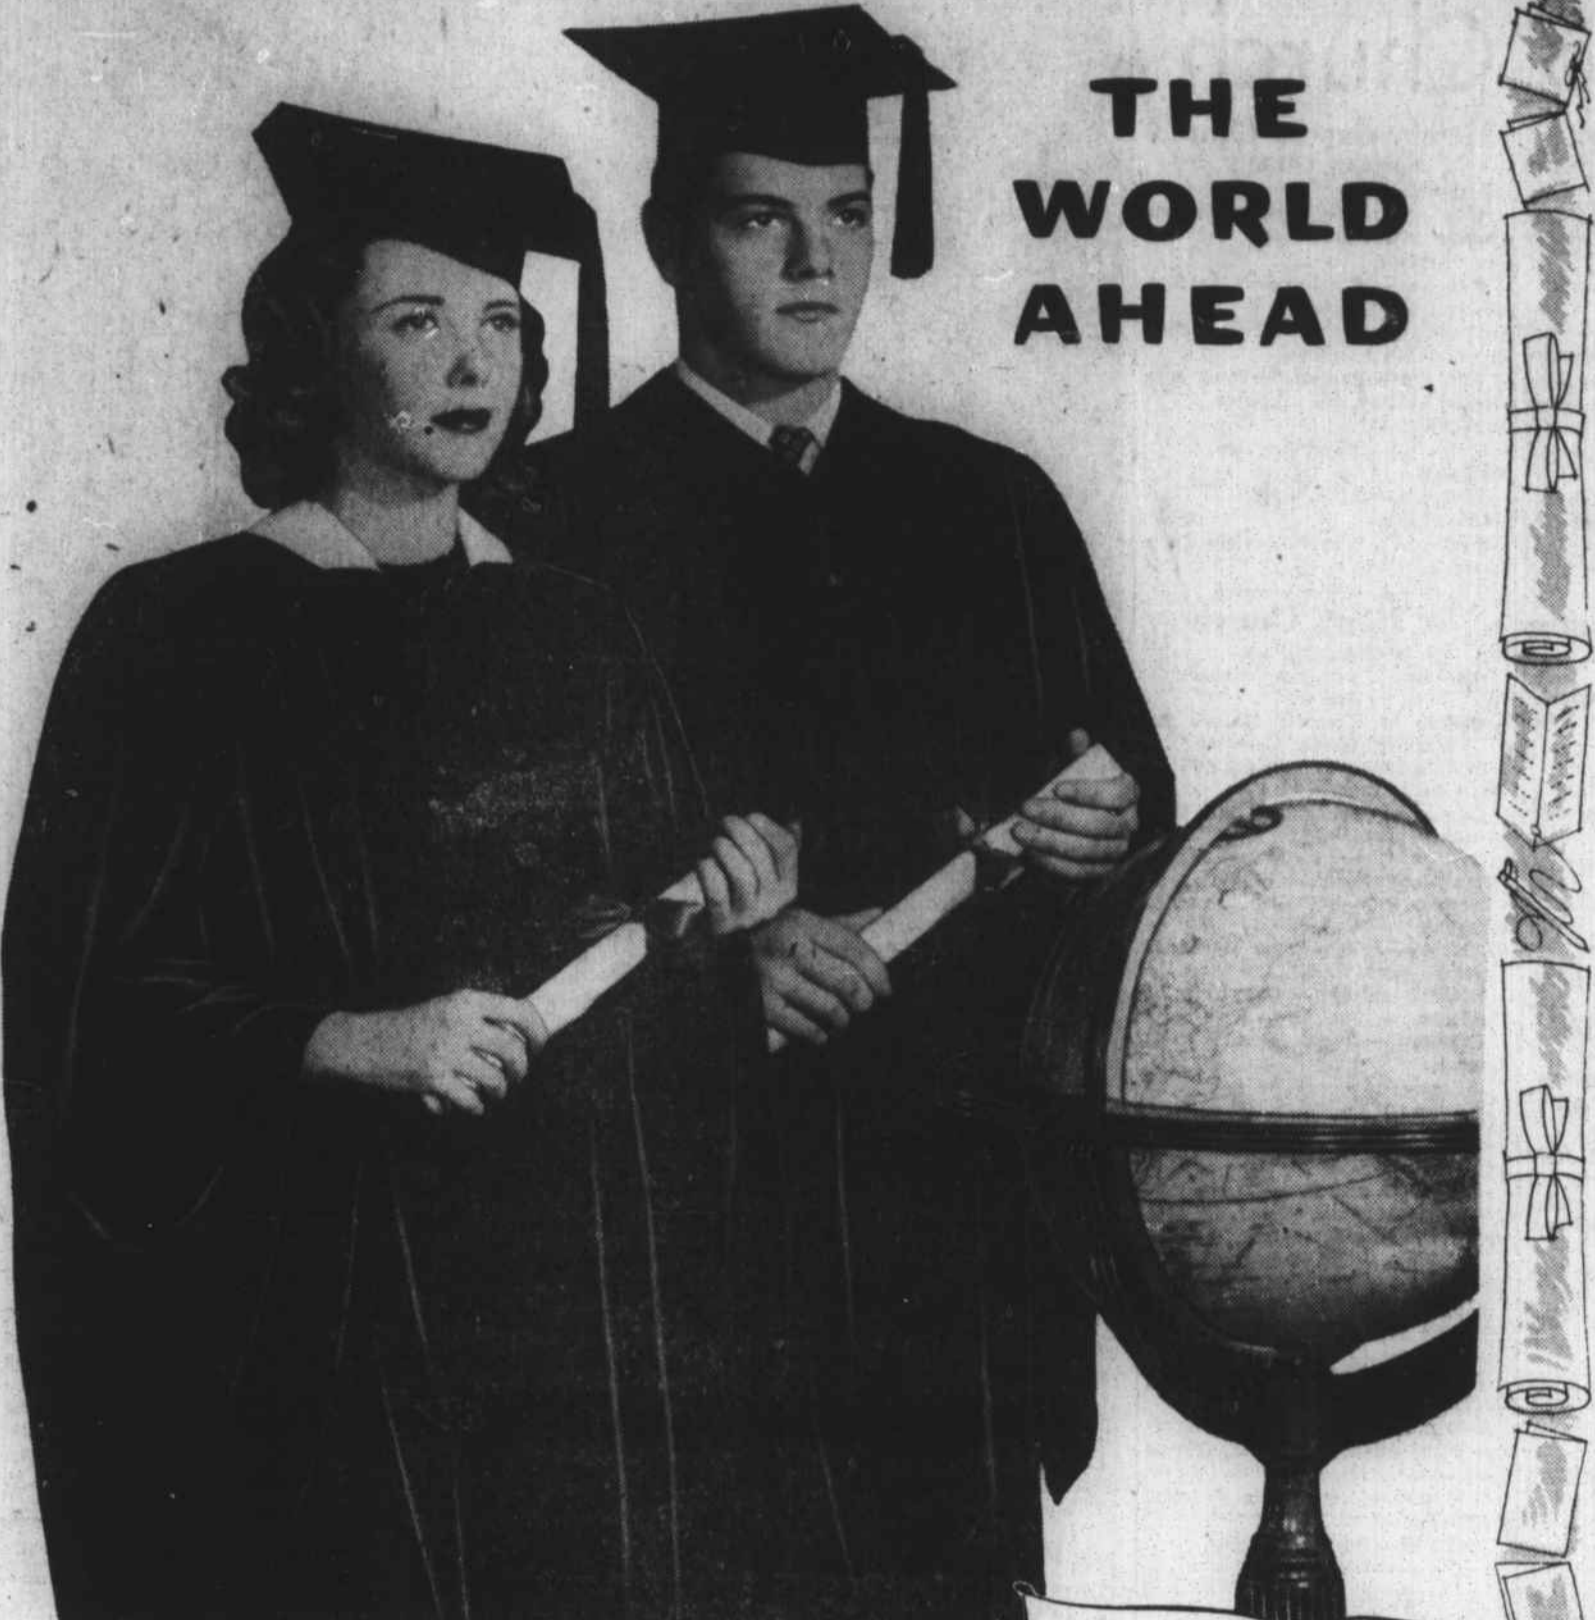

Scripture—Acts 15:36-48:22.

THE APOSTLE PAUL was a restless, energetic man. Before his conversion he persecuted the Christians with vigor. After his change of heart and life he could not be inactive for long. He had a constant urge to travel, spreading the gospel of Christ wherever he went.
From Antioch, where he began all his missionary journeys, he suggested to Barnabas that they go again to visit the cities where churches had been established to "see how they do." Barnabas was willing, but he insisted upon taking John, surnamed Mark, with him. Paul disagreed, and they argued until Paul took Silas and Barnabas took Mark. This is the last reference to Barnabas in the Book of Acts. Barnabas and Mark sailed to Cyprus, Barnabas' original home.
Paul and Silas traveled to Asia, through Syria and Cilicia. At Derbe Paul met a young man whose mother was Jewish and his father Greek. This was Timothy who became his spiritual son, a true believer to whom Paul was to address his last epistle while he was a prisoner in Rome. Timothy went on with Paul and Silas.

After receiving a message from the Spirit that they were not to preach in Asia, Paul had a vision at night. A man appeared to him, begging, "Come over into Macedonia and help us." Paul probably had never been in Europe, but he obediently set sail for Macedonia.
Coming to Philippi, "chief city of that part of Macedonia," they went to a riverside on the Sabbath and met Lydia, a business woman, seller of purple, who worshiped God, and she, listening to Paul, was baptized, inviting the Apostles to accept the hospitality of her house.
Very briefly we may mention the girl whose masters made a great deal of money by her prophesies. She kept following the Apostles, crying, "These men are the servants of God, which shew us the way of salvation."
Growing weary of this, Paul commanded the evil spirit to come out of her, which it did. This angered the men who profited by her power, and the men took Paul and Silas to the magistrate, saying they were teaching customs not lawful. The multitude becoming enraged, too, the magistrate ordered the apostles to be beaten, then threw them into prison.

During the night a great earthquake opened the prison doors so that everyone could have gone free. Paul and Silas had been praying and singing God's praises before the shock came. The jailer, who had been chosen to guard them, was about to kill himself, thinking that all prisoners had escaped, but Paul called to him that no one had freed himself, and the jailer was so impressed that he took the Apostles to his house, fed them, cleansed their wounds, and was baptized with his household.
The Apostles then moved on. They were driven out of Thessalonica by jealous Jews. At Berea they found devout Bible students. Then Paul went to Athens where he was shocked by the numerous statues of heathen gods and goddesses. Seeing an altar erected "To the Unknown God," he made his famous speech from Mars' hill. Some believed, some scoffed; others said they would hear him again.
Leaving Athens, Paul went

THE WORLD AHEAD

Congratulations to all young people who are graduating this year! Receiving a diploma means you have fulfilled the academic requirements and met the standards of conduct of your schools. They, in turn, have given you a secure world for four years, with work and rules of conduct mapped out for you.

Now all this is changed in a day. The anchor has suddenly pulled up, and the world ahead looks insecure and uncertain. You now have to plan your own work, and set your own standards of behavior.

At this point, a church connection is a strong anchor to spiritual security. Let your Commencement mean a commencement of regular church attendance in the church you choose. Face the new world ahead armed with its firm hope and faith.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
