MORE ABOUT Soil Conservation

water on the surface in any quantity comparable to what can be stored in the land.

"Your Haywood County Soil Conservation District is a subdivision of the state government, responsible for a soil and water conservation program within the district. It is planned by a three-man Board of Supervisors.

"Van C. Wells of West Pigeon is chairman; D. J. Boyd of Jonathan Creek is vice chairman and treasurer, and Joe Davis of White Oak is secretary.

"The district does not have power of eminent domain, so it cannot levy taxes or pass ordinances or laws. All help received by the district is a contribution. The Soil Conservation Service's chief role in aiding farmers is to furnish technical assistance on soil and water conservation problems.

"The district program is basically getting landowners to drain level bottomland to protect it from frequent overflow, and use it for maximum production of cultivated crops. Then the uplands can be seeded to permanent hay crops which will protect the land from erosion.

"If a farmer has to cultivate hill land, erosion can be held to a minimum by using contour strip cropping with a good grass-based rotation. Steeper hill lands can be maintained in a good pasture by using lime and fertilizer and by better grazing management.

"Land too steep for grass should be used for growing trees and such woodlands need first to be protected from fire and grazing and then properly managed for maximum production of wood products.

"Stabilization of roadbanks, and for that matter all disturbed land, be it a bulldozed homesite or a farm lane, is becoming of ever-increasing importance as we row-crop less upland and ever increase the amount of all kinds of construction work.

"Each of us has a stake in this soil and water conservation program. Your soil supervisors need your support and help in carrying out a complete conservation program in Haywood County."

DR. SAM BROWN, past president of the American Optometric Association, will be the featured speaker at the annual convention of the North Carolina State Optometric Society in Asheville May 27, 28 and 29. The George Vanderbilt Hotel will serve as convention headquarters.

Mrs. Ferguson Is Honored At Surprise Party

By MRS. AZE GRIFFIN
Community Reporter

Mrs. Lois Ferguson and Barbara Ferguson were honored by Ninevah Church members with a farewell party at the home of Mr. and Aze Griffin.

Mrs. Ferguson, who has always lived in Haywood County, is going to Newport News, Va., to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Douglas Bowen. She also has another daughter in Virginia, Mrs. Wayne Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Bowen of Newport News are visiting relatives here.

Roosevelt Kirkpatrick is a patient at Haywood County Hospital. Roger Davis has returned to the hospital in Winston-Salem.

"Honor Thy Father And Thy Mother"

If you have not already done so, speak your everlasting love for those who did so much for you. Do it in a cemetery that allows you the priceless privilege of erecting a beautiful and distinctive monument rather than in one which, for reasons of its own, restricts you to a metal marker set flush with the ground.

As the years go by you will realize that nothing keeps memories more beautifully alive than a tribute spoken in words of imperishable granite or marble.

DREAM FOR SALE--
At a Price that'll open Your Eyes

A DREAMBOAT—that's what they're calling this stunning Buick SPECIAL. And in all truth, it is a sight for starry eyes.

But, if you think that owning a Buick is just something to dream about, here's some happy news.

Eye-catching, sigh-catching as it is, this beauty is built for stirring action—and priced the same way.

To sum it up quickly:
For only a few dollars more than you'd pay for the well-known smaller cars—for even less than some models of those very same cars—you get all the big-car power and performance, the pace and the grace that are Buick for 1956.

And yet, it's far more than a tempting price tag that has Buick outselling every other car in America except the two well-known smaller ones.

It's the taste and distinction of Buick styling. It's the walloping thrill of Buick power, surging from the new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine.

It's the level buoyancy of Buick's ride, the finger-tip ease of its handling, the sheer luxury of its interior comfort and roominess.

Here, too, if you want it, is Buick's advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflo.† With blazing getaway and amazing gas economy, it's the last and thriftiest word in modern transmission.

How about finding out for yourself what a bargain this Buick SPECIAL is. What a joy to command, what a sweetheart to drive. Come in this week—we'll be looking for you, to make your dreams come true.

†New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick built today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.
