Bible School To Begin Mon. In E. Waynesville

Vacation Bible School will begin at the East Waynesville Baptist Church on Monday, June 4, at 9 a.m. The school will continue Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. until 11:30 a.m., for two weeks. The church bus will make its regular run each day.

Preparation day will be Friday at 2 p.m. and the bus will also make a run at that time.

The pastor, the Rev. Mr. Shope, and Mrs. Leroy Harrell, Bible School principal, invite every boy and girl in the community to attend the school.

Safety Council To Make Awards Tomorrow Night

The Haywood County Traffic Safety Council will meet in the court house Friday at 7:30 p.m., it was announced by the chairman, C. C. Poindexter.

Highlighting the meeting will be presentation of Safety Awards to bus drivers in all county schools, recognition of winners in the Safety Essay Contest in the schools, a report on the Safety Inspection Check Lanes and recognition of winners in the "roadeo" events held in the county recently.

Champion Conference To Open Wednesday

The first of five three-day, 1956 "Chapaco Council" management conferences, involving some 500 management people from The Champion Paper and Fibre Co., will open on Wednesday of next week at Lake Logan.

This second annual "Chapaco Council" will include management personnel from the firm's General Office at Ohio Division at Hamilton, Ohio; its Carolina and Texas mills at Canton, and Pasadena, Texas; and its clay plant at Sandersville, Ga.

This year's program, dealing with the discussion subject, "How to Help 9,000 Champions do more, share more and enjoy more," will register 100 conferees for each of the three-day meeting periods. Approximately 500 management men attended last year's initial conference. The pending meeting series will enroll those who did not participate in 1955, resulting in more than 1,000 registrants over the two-year period.

A. S. Anderson, the company's director of industrial relations, is to serve as council chairman.

The chairing of the respective conferences will be handled by Lewis Clark Thomson, vice-pres., administration; A. M. Fairbrother, Carolina Division assistant general mgr.; John W. Zizzerman, vice-pres. and Ohio Division general mgr.; Maynard D. Conklin, Treas.; and Karl R. Bendtson, vice-pres. and Texas Division general mgr.

The division liaison is comprised of the company's respective divisional industrial-community relations managers: C. C. Fracker, Ohio; John M. Barnes, Carolina; and A. M. Koury, Texas.

The staff organization includes William DeVoll, Don Houck, Stewart Jones, Charles Kluss, Ernie Nelson, John Stephenson and Len Visser of the firm's General Office industrial relations, along with Beekman Huger, assistant treas., Carolina Division.

From Champion Paper's management, speakers and panelists include Reuben B. Robertson, president and board chairman; Dwight J. Thomson, vice pres., industrial and public relations; Herbert W. Suter, vice-pres., sales; Herbert T. Randall, vice-pres., research and engineering; Henry W. Rigby, vice-pres., operations; Carroll L. Wilson, director of finance; and Robert Haynie, director of management planning.

Stone Elected Vice President Of Southern Bell

Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co., North Carolina General Manager Joe S. Stone of Charlotte was elected a vice president of the company, Monday.

Mr. Stone, who was principal speaker at the recent Chamber of Commerce banquet, was elected at a meeting of the utility's board of directors in Atlanta. He will continue to serve as state general manager.

Humane Association Will Meet At Lake

The Haywood County Humane Association will hold an open meeting.

Joining the company in 1929 at Louisville, Ky., Mr. Stone worked as a construction employee and later as installer-repairman at Owensboro. He served as district plant manager at Asheville in 1942. In 1952 he took charge of plant operations in the company's nine-state area.

He came to Charlotte as North Carolina general manager in 1954.

ing, to which all county residents are invited, on Monday, at 8 p.m. Lake Junaluska will be host for the meeting, to be held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Carter, "Snug Harbor" on the corner of Lake Shore Drive and Littleton Rd., on the corner opposite the Ivey dahlia gardens.

Educational and Animal Shelter plans will be discussed and the annual membership drive planned at this meeting.

More than half of America's 14 million people over 65 years old have some form of public or private retirement income available.
