Bethel Methodist Class Has Social

The Joy Class of the Bethel Methodist Church held its monthly social Saturday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh K. Terrell. The event was a hamburger fry and members of the class who graduated this year from Bethel High School were guests.

The occasion also marked the completion of re-decorating the class room in the church. Walls of the room were painted light green and the altar and back drops were covered with dark green velvet. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Frizzell donated the paint and assisted in applying it. Betty Sue West made the altar covering, and mothers of the class members helped raise money by cooking a meal for the class to serve the Lions Club. All members of the class assisted in other ways.

Mrs. Oliver Yount, Jr., and her son, Cecil, spent last week in Wilmington with the former's father, Harry Evans, Sr., and returned Tuesday with Mr. Yount, who spent the past two weeks in Charleston, S. C. training with the Naval Reserve.

Miss Medford Is Bride Of Roy Harkins

Miss Carolyn Medford, daughter of Mrs. John Medford of Canton and the late Mr. Medford, became the bride of Roy Harkins of Canton, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Harkins of Cleveland, Ga., Saturday June 2 at 4 p.m. in Long's Methodist Church.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Kenneth Crouse, pastor of the church. A program of music was presented by C. L. Turner, brother-in-law of the bride, organist, and Paul Franklin, soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Boyce Medford. She wore a gown of white satin and lace, designed with princess lines. The long tapered sleeves ended in points and the skirt extended into a train. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion was attached to a cap encrusted with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a white, purple-throated, orchid, and carnation streamers. Her string of pearls was a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Eva Lou Breece of Canton was the bride's only attendant. She wore a floor length dress of rose taffeta and net, and carried a nosegay of mixed spring flowers. Gerald Breece was best man. Boyd Medford, brother of the bride, and Bill Bullock were ushers.

After a wedding trip to the coast, the couple will reside near Canton.

Mrs. Harkins is a graduate of Bethel High School, and is now employed in the Sample Office of the Champion Paper and Fibre Company in Canton.

Mr. Harkins is a graduate of Cleveland High School. He served in the U. S. Navy and is presently employed at Murphy Chevrolet Company in Canton.

Hat Styles Get In The Swim

MERMAID FASHIONS... Here are two new bathing cap styles for summer, showing the current more at trend.

AP Newsfeatures
The new more-hat styles of the season now take to the water. New bathing caps slated for airing on fashionable beaches this summer are designed for glamor, as well as to keep the hair dry. Some are decorated with embossed flowers, others adopt some of the new hat silhouettes such as the beret and the tam o' shanter. Most of the new caps have inner construction to provide a tighter seal against the water and to protect smart hairdos from the surf.
