Beulah Caldwell Paxton Is Bride Of Hugh Elder

The wedding of Mrs. Beulah Caldwell Paxton of Waynesville and Hugh W. Elder of Asheville was solemnized Sunday afternoon, June 10, at 4 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Caldwell of Waynesville and the bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Oscar Elder of Anniston, Ala.

The ceremony was held in the garden at the home of the bride's parents with the Rev. T. A. Groce of Asheville, former pastor of the bride, officiating.

A program of music was presented by Miss Linda Boone, pianist, and Charles Isley, soloist.

The vows were spoken before an improvised altar formed with baskets of white gladioli, fern and gypsophelia against a background of fern.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of blush pink satin designed with empire bodice trimmed with lace and iridescent sequins. The skirt was fashioned with inserted panels of Chantilly lace and her matching veil was attached to a Juliet cap of blush pink lace and illusion trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a pearl encrusted white satin Bible, a gift of the bridegroom, topped with a white orchid.

Miss Teresa Fernandez of Waynesville was maid of honor. She wore a Balenciaga Original of periwinkle blue net over taffeta trimmed with pink lavender bows and her hat was an original model from Havana in a color matching the bows. She carried a bouquet of garden flowers.

Cecil Snead of Asheville served as best man.

A reception was held at The Towne House in Waynesville immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth over pink and was centered with an arrangement of asters and snapdragon in a silver and crystal epergne, flanked with pink and white candles.

Assisting were Mrs. Charles Isley, Mrs. T. M. Fincher, and Mrs. Walter Craven.

Mrs. Caldwell, mother of the bride, wore a dress of pale blue linen and lace and her corsage was of pink roses. Mrs. James A. Glass, Sr. of Anniston, sister of the bridegroom, wore aqua and white linen with a corsage of gardenias.

For a wedding trip to Florida the bride wore a dress of mint green polished cotton with white accessories and the orchid from her Bible.

Upon their return the couple will be at home at 200 Haywood Street, Waynesville.

Mrs. Elder is employed at Wellco Shoe Corporation, Hazelwood and Mr. Elder is employed by Bostonian Shoe Co. and M. V. Moore and Company at Asheville.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. James A. Glass, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Craven and daughter, Caryal, all of Anniston, Ala.
