Linda June Messer Becomes Bride Of Rufus Roy Cantrell

Miss Linda June Messer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Worth Messer of Waynesville, became the bride of Rufus Roy Cantrell of Greenville, S. C. in the First Baptist Church, Saturday, June 16, at 7:30 p.m.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thomas Cantrell of Chesnee, S. C.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. E. Robinson, pastor of the church, with the bride receiving her mother's wedding ring.

The chancel was decorated with rhododendron and white gladioli, interspersed with branched candelabra. A lighted white taper was placed near the pulpit Bible which was opened at the Book of Ruth.

Miss Ruth Herman of Greenville, S. C., organist, and Miss Phinola Blackstone of Easley, S. C., vocalist, presented the wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a princess gown of white satin and Chantilly lace with empire waist, scalloped circular neckline, and long lace sleeves ending in points. The skirt extended into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a Juliet cap of satin and lace encrusted with seed pearls and she carried a white Bible covered with orchids. She wore a pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom, and her gown was fashioned by Mrs. M. V. Cantrell of Greenville, S. C., sister-in-law of the bridegroom.

Mrs. James E. Reed of Sylva, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Miss Evelyn Cleveland of Seneca, S. C., a former roommate of the bride at Furman University, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. James Cleary of Winston-Salem and Mrs. Howard

Kit Hicks of Waynesville. The attendants wore identical dresses of blue crystal sheen fashioned like the gown of the bride with bandeaux of the same material trimmed with clusters of seed pearls and net. The matron of honor carried a bouquet of pink carnations, the maid of honor carried dark pink carnations and the bridesmaids' bouquets were of white with accents of pink.

Joseph Thomas Cantrell served as best man for his son and ushers were Worth Messer of Asheville, brother of the bride, Leland Cantrell of Chesnee, S. C., brother of the bridegroom, Neil Thomas of Gaffney, S. C., and Phillip E. Elliott, Jr. of Boiling Springs.

Following the ceremony the couple received in the vestibule of the church.

Mrs. Messer, mother of the bride, wore a blue taffeta dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The mother of the bridegroom wore a pink taffeta dress with deeper pink carnations.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a blue sheen dress with matching jacket, pink accessories, and the orchid corsage from her Bible.

Upon their return from a trip through the mountains and to a South Carolina beach, the couple will be at home at 109 Wilton Street, Greenville, S. C. until September when Mr. Cantrell will enter Southeastern Seminary at Wake Forest.

Mrs. Cantrell attended Waynesville High School, Mars Hill Junior College and was graduated this June from Furman University, Greenville, S. C.

Mr. Cantrell attended Boiling Springs High School, North Greenville Junior College and was graduated in 1955 from Furman University with an AB degree in Sociology. He is now serving as a probation officer in the Juvenile and Domestic Court in Greenville.

On Friday evening following the wedding rehearsal the parents of the bride entertained with a cake cutting. Assisting were the honorary bridesmaids, Miss Marguerite Sparks of Spruce Pine, Miss Betty Anne Howell of Waynesville, and Miss Ina Faile of Kershaw, S. C.

MRS. LYNWOOD P. McELROY was married Sunday afternoon in the First Methodist Church. She is the former Miss Mary Elizabeth Medford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Clark Medford of Waynesville. (Sherrill's Photo).

Mary Elizabeth Medford Weds Lynwood P. McElroy

Miss Mary Elizabeth Medford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Clark Medford of Waynesville, became the bride of Lynwood P. McElroy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McElroy, also of Waynesville, in the First Methodist Church, Sunday afternoon, June 17, at 3 o'clock.

The Rev. Earl H. Brendall, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony and the vows were spoken before an arch covered with white roses.

The altar was decorated with floor baskets of white gladioli, larkspur, and white lilies against a background of palms and fern interspersed with seven-branched candelabra.

Mrs. Fred B. Calhoun, organist, and Charles L. Isley, Jr., soloist, presented the wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a chapel-length gown reminiscent of the Old South, fashioned of magnolia Dupion silk and re-embroidered Alencon lace. The princess bodice was designed with sweetheart neckline edged with lace encrusted with iridescent sequins and seed pearls. The long tapered sleeves ended in points over the hands. The skirt, worn over hoops, was designed with a deep, gathered flounce falling from broad scallops below the waist. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Her full circular fingertip veil of imported silk illusion was attached to an open-crown Mary Stuart cap of pearl trimmed Alencon lace, delicately edged with pleated nylon tulle.

Mrs. Donald Kent Robertson of Baltimore, Md., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her ballerina-length gown was fashioned of sunlight yellow satin with overskirt of white Schiffl embroidered nylon tulle and featured a scooped neckline, torso waist, and crushed cummerbund with large bow of yellow satin. She wore matching mitts and a headdress of flowers and carried a cascade bouquet of blue helianthus, yellow roses, and gypsophila.

Junior bridesmaids were Patricia Robertson of Baltimore, Md., and Beth Cartwright of Asheville, nieces of the bride.

Their ballerina length dresses were sunlight yellow similar in design to that of the matron of honor. They carried colonial bouquets of pastel flowers and wore head-
