

Bob Francis Will Address CDP In Macon

Bob Francis of Hatcliff Cove, noted humorist, will be the principal speaker at a meeting July 2 of the Holly Springs CDP group in Macon County, winning community in the 1955 WNC district development contest.

Other Haywood County residents will accompany Mr. Francis to the meeting.

"Mister Bob" also was the principal speaker at a meeting of the Ball Creek Lions Club of Yancey County at the Manor Hotel in Asheville Monday. The program was observed as Ladies Night and included election of officers.

Pigeon Valley Memorial Day Plans Announced

Plans are being completed for the Pigeon Valley Memorial Day on Sunday, July 1. The services will be held at the Bethel Methodist Church and will feature an all-day singing with dinner on the

John B. Collins Succeeds Turnley As FHA Manager

John B. Collins of Asheville has succeeded T. T. Turnley, resigned, as supervisor of the Haywood County office of the Farmers Home Administration in the courthouse. Before coming here, Mr. Collins was with the Statesville office of the FHA.

A 1955 graduate of N. C. State College, Mr. Collins is now residing with his wife in the Balsam Manor Apartments.

Mr. Turnley has not yet announced his future plans.

JOHN A. MOORE, manager of the personnel department at the Dayton Rubber Co., was elected secretary of the WNC chapter of the Society for Advancement of Management at a recent meeting in Asheville. He has also served as a regional director of the society as a secretary-treasurer of the WNC Safety Council.

Six Lions To Attend Convention

Six members of the Waynesville Lions Club will leave here Sunday morning to attend the Lions International convention at Miami, June 27-30.

The group includes: Lawrence B. Leatherwood, district governor of 31-A, and his family; Dr. J. E. Fender, incoming president of the local club; and his family; Harry Whisenhunt, district secretary, and his family, and club delegates Joe Tate, Jr., John Boyd, and M. T. Bridges.

Lions Charles L. Isley also will be at Miami with the Waynesville Township High School band, which will represent Lions District 31-A at the convention.

This year, North Carolina is seeking to break all past records for the size of its convention delegation with 3,000 Tar Heel Lions on hand for the Sunshine City festivities.

Major events of the convention are the parade Wednesday night, "North Carolina Night" in the Orange Bowl Thursday, and the inauguration of John L. Stickle as international president Saturday.

charge of the devotions. The next WMU meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Aze Griffin on Saturday night at 7:30, July 7.

Mrs. James Snyder, Mrs. Winston Ensley, from Newport News, Va., are visiting their parents here, Mr. and Mrs. John Smiley.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Leming spent Sunday in Andrews visiting relatives.

Ninevah Church Honors Fathers

By MRS. AZE GRIFFIN
Community Reporter

The WMU of the Ninevah church presented a gift to the oldest and youngest father, Sunday for Father's Day. Jim Barnhardt was the youngest father and Harrison Cowan the oldest father. They received shirts as their gifts.

The WMU met at the home of Mrs. Anna Gifford Tuesday night with Mrs. Hilda Hollinsworth in grounds.

All churches of the community will have their regular Sunday School services and at 11 o'clock the Memorial Day program will begin, with the Rev. Clyde Collins, former pastor, preaching. The cemetery was started while Mr. Collins was pastor of the Bethel Methodist Church.

Turner Cathey will preside during the day. He is chairman of the committee on cemetery decoration.

Those attending the planning meeting included, besides Cathey, Dr. L. B. Hayes, Methodist pastor; Mrs. Edith Clark, Carson Clark, Van Wells, Mrs. Welch Singleton, Mrs. Maude Peek, Mrs. Hugh K. Terrell and the Rev. L. B. duBose, pastor of the Bethel Presbyterian Church.

Last year the event was attended by several hundred people and an even larger attendance is anticipated this year.
