MRS. TERRY CARLTON MCGILL was married Saturday afternoon in Long's Chapel Methodist Church. She is the former Miss Kathryn Manees McCracken, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carey McCracken of Lake Junaluska. (H. B. Norton Photo.)

Kathryn Manees McCracken Is Bride Of Terry McGill

Miss Kathryn Manees McCracken, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carey McCracken of Lake Junaluska, became the bride of Terry Carlton McGill, son of the Rev. and Mrs. J. F. McGill of Rockwood, Tenn., in Long's Chapel Methodist Church at Lake Junaluska, Saturday, June 23, at 4 p.m.

The Rev. Don Payne, pastor, performed the ceremony. Wedding music was presented by Miss Peggy McCracken, cousin of the bride, organist, and Miss Mozelle Liner, vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of white crystaletta designed with fitted bodice with off-the-shoulder neckline, and full, tiered skirts. Her fingertip veil of French illusion fell from a tiara of lily-of-the-valley and she carried a white orchid on a Bible. Her only jewelry was an heirloom pearl brooch which belonged to her great-great grandmother.

Mrs. Thomas Massie Ray of Waynesville, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Miss Karen McCracken, also a sister of the bride, was maid of honor. They wore identical floor length gowns of blue crystaletta, featuring sweetheart necklines and bows at the back. They wore headresses of blue forget-me-nots and carried nosegays of mixed summer flowers. Cynthia Sutton, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and Thomas Kiplin Ray, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer. The flower girl's white dress was patterned after the bride's with full tiered skirt. She carried a basket of rose petals.

William McGill of Gatlinburg, Tenn. served as best man for his brother and ushers were Thomas Massie Ray, brother-in-law of the bride, Bob Fulbright of Lake Junaluska, cousin of the bride, Johnny Mack Ferguson, and Tommy Owen.

The mother of the bride wore blue lace with black accessories and her corsage was of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of blue polished cotton with black accessories and a gardenia corsage. For a wedding trip the bride wore a beige linen suit with matching accessories and the orchid from her Bible.

Mrs. McGill was graduated from Waynesville Township High School and completed a commercial art course at Western Carolina College where she was a member of the Future Business Leaders of America.

Mr. McGill was graduated from Pineville, Ky., High School and is now serving as apprentice at Garrett Funeral Home. He enters Cincinnati College of Embalming, Cincinnati, Ohio, in September.

The couple will make their home at Lake Junaluska. Among the out-of-town guests were Miss Mary Ring of Clinton, Tenn., Mrs. William McGill of Gatlinburg, Tenn., Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Swafford of Lenoir City, Tenn., Mr. and Mrs. Donald B. Bowman of Aiken, S. C., and Miss Loretta McGill of Lenoir City, Tenn.
