Nancy Rebecca Calvin Is Bride Of Charles R. Mills

Miss Nancy Rebecca Calvin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gardner J. Calvin of Canton, became the bride of Charles Robert Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jennings G. Mills, also of Canton, Saturday, at 5 p.m. in the First Presbyterian Church of Canton.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Clayton Lime, pastor of the church. A program of wedding music was presented by Robert Matthews, organist, and Mrs. James A. Henderson, soloist, sister of the bride of River Edge, N. J.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of imported, hand clipped, Chantilly lace and nylon, tulle over bridal satin, fashioned with basque bodice and short sleeves. The sweetheart neckline was finished with hand clipped scallops. A bouffant skirt featured an overskirt of the lace falling over tiers of pleated tulle which extended into a chapel length train. Her two-tiered flingertip veil of illusion was attached to a small cap of Chantilly lace, edged with pleated tulle and seed pearls.

She carried a bouquet of white roses cascaded with stephanotis. Mrs. W. C. Johnson, Jr. of Ithaca, N. Y., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a waltz length dress of pink permanently pleated crystalline, designed with a tiered skirt and tucked taffeta bodice, with petal effect of pleated crystalline. She wore a small matching hat and carried a cascade bouquet of garden flowers in pastel colors.

Bridesmaids were Miss Peggy Mills, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Edith Carolyn Hutchins, and Miss Margaret Rice, all of Canton. Their dresses were of aqua pleated crystalline over taffeta, identical in design to that of the matron of honor. They wore small matching hats, and their bouquets were of mixed garden flowers.

Miss Rebecca Henderson of River Edge, N. J., niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

Mr. Mills served as best man for his son. Ushers were Chester Newton of Fort Worth, Texas, Oppie Owensby of Hendersonville, Robert Williamson, and Thomas Clark, both of Canton.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Giennelle's. Assisting in serving were: Mrs. J. C. Lime, Mrs. Gienn Williams, and the aunts of the bride: Mrs. W. S. Calvin, Mrs. Edward Furness, Mrs. Charles Holland, and Mrs. Earl Calvin.

Miss Melissa Osborne presided at the guest register, and Mrs. Charles Ward presented a program of music.

For a wedding trip the bride wore a pale blue summer cotton dress with full accordion pleated skirt. Her accessories were all white, and she wore a corsage from her bouquet.

The bride was graduated from Canton High School and attended Southwestern University at Memphis. She is a member of Kappa Kelta Sorority.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Canton High School, Arlington State College, Arlington, Texas, and the American Institute of Baking, Chicago, Ill. He is now employed with American Bakeries, Inc., Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills will make their home in Atlanta.
