Schedule Of Activities Listed For 13th Annual Out-Of-State Farm Tour

Yellowstone Falls Suggested Site Of Mile-High Lake

The proposed Balsam Lake on the Wagon Road section of the Blue Ridge Parkway was inspected last Wednesday by representatives of several state and federal agencies. Tentative plans were agreed upon for proceeding with promotion of the 119-acre, mile-high lake. Inspection of the site and checking of the proposed plans for a survey by the group was made in the morning, with a business meeting and luncheon at Pisgah Forest Inn at noon.

Four Students On Dean's List At Cullowhee

Tommy Edge of Clyde left yesterday for New York City. He will spend a week there after which he will tour New York State and Canada. Those from Haywood County are: Betty Arrington, Canton; Julia Ann Calhoun, Waynesville, and Duane Oliver and Carroll Dean Swanger, both of Hazelwood. Sutton pointed out that the standards set for this honor are quite high, covering areas of scholarship, citizenship, character, personality, and worthwhile contribution to college life.

Three Days In Canada On Itinerary

The tentative program for the annual Haywood County out-of-state farm tour, July 19-29, has been announced by County Agent Virgil L. Holloway. The itinerary includes: Thursday, July 19—Leave courthouse at 6 a. m.; rest stop at Abingdon, Va.; lunch at Shiloh community center near Pulaski, Va., and

Aid To Sheriff Wins Convicts Reduced Terms

Haywood County Sheriff Fred Y. Campbell reported the prison truck skidded on ice and wrecked as he was approaching Asheville with the prisoners. The sheriff and another officer were injured. Instead of escaping, the two prisoners directed other prisoners not to leave. Fowler, according to the report, picked up the sheriff's pistol and put it back in the holster. Fowler's sentence of 7 to 10 years was commuted to 6 to 9 years. Cagle's sentence was shortened from 4 to 7 years to from 3 to six years.
