Maxine Davis Is Bride Of Ralph Stearns

Miss Maxine Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Davis of Waynesville, was married to Ralph Stearms of Pitcher, New York Tuesday, July 3, in the home of

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Mabel Palmer and the late Carl Stearns.

The Rev. Thomas Erwin pronounced the vows before an improvised altar of white gladioli and carnations.

The bride wore a street-length dress of pink silk with white accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid. Mrs. Wendell Davis was maid of honor. She wore a white dress and carried a bouquet of mixed garden flowers.

Wendell Davis served as best

An informal reception was held following the ceremony with Miss Nancy Davis, Mrs. Leonard Farmer, Miss Martha Fisher, and Miss Christine Fisher assisting.

Mrs. Stearns is a graduate of Bethel High School. Mr. Stearns is a graduate of South Otselic High School and is now employed with Champion Sheet Metal Co. in Cortlandt, N. Y., where the couple will make their home,

Miss Medford, Bride - Elect, Is Honored

Mrs. T. C. Davis and Mrs. Roy B. Medford were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower Friday evening in the home of Mrs. Davis as a courtesy to Miss Mattie Sue Medford, bride-elect of Paul Thomas

A bridal motif was carried out and mixed garden flowers were used in decorating.

The guests were Miss Medford, Mrs. Cash Medford, Mrs. Ellis Plan Ahead, Smart, Mrs. Glen Tate, Mrs. Ava Caldwell, Mrs. Edith Milner, Mrs. For Meals Clinton McElroy, Mrs. Ned Crawford, Mrs. Wallace Ward, Mrs. Mrs. Erastus Medford, Mrs. Kate does anything else. Caldwell, Mrs. L. O. Ferguson, Mrs. tion does for the business man. Bernice Chambers, and Miss Sybil Bradshaw,

Center Pigeon Club Holds July Meeting

The Center Pigeon Home Demin the home of Mrs. O. T. Hen-meal planning and preparation." Haynes Henson, was in charge and the devotional was given by Mrs. Doris Cogburn.

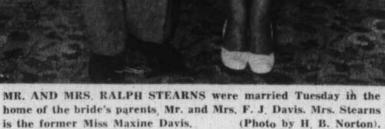

Plans were made for a plastic workshop to be held at the home of Mrs. Boyd Medford in August. Announcement was made con- live the frozen foods way. cerning plans for the Farm Tour.

CHARLES EUGENE DAVIS ON DEAN'S LIST

Charles Eugene Davis of Hazelwood was included on the Dean's List for the spring semester at Mars Hill College. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Davis,

MRS. SHELTON IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. W. T. Shelton is a patient the food and the number of packin the Haywood County Hospital ages. for injuries received in a fall,

HDC Schedule

Friday, July 6, 2:00 p.m.-Jona-

Saturday, July 7, 12:05 p.m.-

Hartshorn (Mrs. A. H. Bottoms

Tuesday, July 10, 4:00 p.m.-

Tuesday, July 10, 7:30 p.m.

Wednesday, July 11, 9:00 a.m,-

Wednesday, July 11, 7:30 p.m.-

Thursday, July 12, 12:45 p.m.-

Thursday, July 12. 2:00 p.m.

Friday, July 13, 2:00 p. m. -

Saturday, July 14, 12:05 p. m .-

WWIT Canton Radio Program.

home of Mrs. Paul Davis.

Chesapeake Bay area.

than-Mrs. Grady Howell,

WWIT-Radio

Kate Phillips).

Look Ahead,

Are you the type of person who Monday, July 9, 2:00 p.m.—South Protect Family George Fulbright, Mrs. Horace walts until you open the refriger- Clyde-Mrs. C. R. Pless (Mrs. R. C. Crawford, Mrs. Dan Davis, Mrs. ator door before deciding what to Rogers); Medford Leatherwood, Mrs. Sara have for a meal? Haste makes Monday, July 9, 7:30 p.m.-Can-Leatherwood, Mrs. Mabel Parton, waste in meal planning just as it ton Homemakers - Mrs. Larry Crawford, Miss Patsy Crawford, Nita Orr, extension frozen foods Mrs. Carleton Peyton) Miss Joan Medford, Mrs. Joe Med- specialist at State College, advises ford, Mrs. Guy Fulbright, Mrs. Mar. advanced meal preparation. She Farm Bureau Picnic. giè Leatherwood, Mrs. Jackie Cald- says it will pay off as much as adwell, Mrs. E. R. White, Mrs. J. R. vanced sales planning and prepara. Lakeside-Mrs. Troy Boyd (Miss ing.

The business man gets his returns in money and in smooth busi- White Oak-Copper tooling workness operation, Yours may cost you shop-Mrs. Hobert Franklin. money, but your pay-off will be in convenience and in smooth house- Francis Cove-Mrs. Walter Ensley, special marker, hold operation.

Miss Orr says. "When you look WHCC Radio Program. ahead, cook shead, and freeze

(Mrs. Taylor Ferguson) co-hostess. The president, Mrs. frozen foods becomes a way of life Fines Creek picnic and just not another way to keep Green. food from one growing season to to be willing to change your think- Fincher's Chapel. ing and accept some new ideas to

It is best to plan the family food The demonstration on "Built-Ins" was given by Miss Mary Corn-that freeze well. Plan the use of Garden Club Council the food and keep it moving. For Will Meet Monday example, even though frozen strawberries may be good to eat after within a year, Miss Orr suggests making a plan for your family's food supply for a year. Keep an inventory of food which you put in your freezer and in the locker at the plant. This may be a simple list with the name of their children Betty Lou and Steve children eat them like candy.

where she is receiving treatment | Check off the food as it is used.

KURT GANS - "The Store of Fine Watches"

SPECIAL

UNTIL MONDAY, JULY 10, ONLY

1/3 OFF

ON FAMOUS MAKE OF

DIAMOND WATCHES

Regular $ 350 — Now $233 Regular $ 475 — Now $316

Regular $1000 -- Now $667 Regular $1350 — Now $900

Mrs. Secrest Of Canton Enjoys Worthy Activities

Burke-Truitt Wedding Is Held In Texas

Miss LaRue Pruitt, daughter of Mrs. Felix Pruitt of Turnersville, married to Pfc. Milton R. Burke Mrs. J. W. Burke of Canton and ity. the late Mr. Burke.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Billy Joe Pruitt of Houston, Texas, wore a streetlength dress of blue and white lace and carried a white Bible with orchids and slit carnations,

Miss Betty Sadler of Turnersville was maid of honor and Sam McGriffin of Louisville, Ky. was

A reception was held in the home of the bride's mother following the ceremony.

Toint Hostesses Entertain For Virginia Cline

Mrs. Marvin Alexander, Mrs Willis Kirkpatrick, and Mrs. L. H. Hartshorn were hostesses at a the Alexander home, as a courtesy tive in this work during both Morning Star to Miss Virginia Cline, bride-elect World Wars. of Edward Thornhill, III.

Arrangements of mixed summer oree was presented a gift of crystal 1919, this organization holds by the hostesses.

Guests included members of the Canton Garden Club, and also Sewing, chatting, and canasta are Mrs. A. P. Cline, Jr. of Canton, and Miss Mary Lou Gerringer of Hazelwood.

Central Methodist Church of Can-

Against Poisons

By RUTH CURRENT Home Demonstration Agent

PROTECT FAMILY-The State Board of Health offers hints to thing can be done, they should do protect your family against poison- it and stop worrying. "Worry kills,

Lock up all dangerous sub stances marked. This can be done by sealing with adhesive tape or using a Is Set For Tonight hazardous materials, be sure the ing tonight at 8 p.m. on the third contents cannot be reached by floor of the bank building. Worthy onstration Club met Monday night ahead, you are doing advanced Dellwood - Miss Fannie Campbell children or pets. Warn small chil- Matron Mrs, Julia Chambers will dren not to eat or drink drugs, preside. If managed properly, the use of Thursday, July 12, 6:30 p.m.- chemicals, plants, or berries they find without your permission. In sist on this.

> another, Miss Orr adds. You need Crabtree-Hyder Mt. - Iron Duff - ventilation only, and avoid breath- Shoolbred, ing vapors.

Protect your skin and eyes when using insect poisons, weed killers, and Mrs. Harold Massie, of Flagsolvents, and cleaning agents. Be ler Beach, Florida, is the guest of sure to wash thoroughly after use her cousin, Pan Parkman, of such things, and promptly remove contaminated clothing.

Do not allow food or food utensils to become contaminated when A meeting of the Waynesville two years' storage, it is good zero Garden Club Council will be held space management to eat them Monday. July 9, at 10 a.m. in the ing agents ing agents,

Mrs. R. H. Stretcher will pre- cine always shake the bottle thor-Before measuring liquid medioughly. Safeguard tablets which are can-Mr. and Mrs. Bob Williams and died, flavored, or colored, since Weed out the left-overs regularreturned from a ten-day vacation ly from your medicine chest in Washington, D. C., and the especially any prescription drug that your physician ordered for a particular illness.

This will avoid "lost" packages that Use a prescription drug only for turn up after longer storage than the patient for whom the physician ordered it.

By GERALDINE R. PEYTON "I love people, and I have loved working with them." This state-ment by Mrs. H. D. Secrest truly portrays the theme of her many years of service in religious and civic activities in the town of Canton Although born in Cincinnati, Texas and the late Mr. Pruitt, was Ohio in 1874, Mrs. Secrest has made her home in Canton during of Fort Hood, Texas on June 9, the past fifty years. She has conin the Turnersville Baptist Church, tributed much in time and energy The bridegroom is the son of to the betterment of the commun-

> Mrs. Secrest's faith in God, her genuine love of people, and her untiring efforts have made her an inspiration to the young women of today.

Long active in the Methodist Church, she has served as organist, teacher, and also treasurer of the Missionary Society. After holding the latter office twenty-five years, a gift was sent by the group to Scarritt College in Nashville, Tenn, in honor of Mrs. Secrest.

In 1914 she assisted in the organization of the Canton Woman's Club, and because its first president. During her term of office the club established the first public library in Canton. This project has grown from an eight dollar a month rented building to a modern library of which Western North Carolina can well be proud.

Mrs. Secrest is a charter member of the local chapter of the coffee hour Monday morning in American Red Cross. She was ac-Another group of which Mrs

Secrest is a charter member is the flowers were used, and the hon- Friendly Dozen Club. Formed in monthly meetings, at which time members enjoy good fellowship. usually on the agenda.

To the civic minded young woman Mrs. Secrest gives this bit of Miss Cline and Mr. Thornhill advice, "Take part in worthwhile will be married Saturday in the activities, and be willing to serve on committees." "Many times a woman may cite a need and offer a suggestion that might be overlooked by men", she says.

Active in P.T.A. work for many years, Mrs. Secrest was given special recognition recently for her efforts as the first president.

Mrs. Secrest feels that the women let themselves worry too much over things about which they can do nothing. However, if somebut work does not," she states.

Be sure all poisons are clearly Eastern Star Meeting

Waynesville Chapter No. 165 When you throw away drugs or O.E.S. will hold its regular meet-

Mrs. Arthur Meads of Sumter, S. C., a former resident of Way-Use cleaning fluids with adequate nesville, is visiting Mrs. John Tess Massie, daughter of Mr.

SHOES

Most All

Sizes and Widths

Main Street

New Miracle Blouses Make Summer A Breeze

MODERN SHIRTWAIST GIRLS . . . Their dainty blouses are always crisp and fresh, thanks to modern miracle fabrics. Left, trim tailored shirt in dacron crepe, embroidered in forget-me-nots, Right, multi-color polka dot print on dacron crepe. Both designed by Judy Bond for carefree non-iron life.

Club Meets With Mrs. R. H. Worley

The Morning Star Home Demonstration Club met Monday in the tion Club met Tuesday morning in home of Mrs. R. H. Worley. The the home of Mrs. Lee Stoutt. Mrs. devotional was given by Mrs. Tom Ernest Green presided and the King and Mrs. Howard Cole con- devotional was given by Mrs. Lawducted the business. Mrs. Carroll Richeson was welcomed as a new member. hold a Norwegian luncheon at its Week in Raleigh, be held. An exhibit of Norwegian silver articles was shown by Mrs. R. H. Ins" was given by Miss Mary Corn- souffle for interesting flavor. Worley.

Mrs. Emmett Patton, health leader, reported on club activi- hostess, ties. Miss Mary Cornwell gave the demonstration on "Built-Ins." The hostess was assisted in en- is stationed at Fort Meade, Md.,

Laura Worley. Brenda Brendall Is Hostess At Party

Brenda Brendall was hostess a "slumber party" last night in her home. The guests were Florence Ann Bowles, Gail Camlin Katheryn Cross, Judie Harrell, Bette Liner, Jo Anne Metzger, Ann Prevost, Dody Prevost, Agnes Jane Roberson, and Grey Watkins

John Chapman has returned to his home in Magnolia, Ark, after spending a few days with his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Walker, in Clyde. Mrs. Chapman and their daughters remained to spend the summer with the Walkers.

Regular $7.95 SHOES - - - Now $4.95

White, Beige, Brown & White and

Black & White

NEVER BUY UNTIL YOU TRY

TURNER'S STORE

Regular $5.95

SHOES - - - Now

Mrs. Stoutt Is Hostess For Fairview Club

The Fairview Home Demonstrarence Davis. Mrs. R. J. Fowler gave a report on the Civil Defense meeting in Plans were made for the club to Charlotte and Farm and Home next meeting, August 13 at the The club made plans to hold a nome of Mrs. Howard Cole, at craft workshop in August in the which time a workshop will also home of Mrs. Ernest Green with a covered dish luncheon. The demonstration on "Built-

Luncheon was served by the

Sp/3 Franklin Dewitt James, who tertaining by her daughter, Miss arrived last Saturday to spend a three weeks' furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben James, and his wife and son, Marvin.

Miss Duckworth Is Bride Of Bruce Corzine

Miss Nancy Kay Duckworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Duckworth of Canton, became the bride of Bruce L. Corzine, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Corzine, also of Canton, Saturday, June 30 at 7 p.m. in the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Williams, on Pisgah Drive in Canton.

The Rev. W. H. Pless of Asheville, uncle of the bridegroom, performed the ceremony. The couple entered together. For her wedding the bride wore a dress of pale blue pima silk, designed with a fitted bodice and a full skirt of unpressed pleats. She wore a single strand of pearls, belonging to her maternal grandmother, and an orchid corsage. A reception was held following the ceremony. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Maurice Brooks, Mrs. Howard Pless, and Mrs. John R. Williams, aunts of the bride, Miss Sandra Williams, cousin of the bride, and Miss Zira Plemmons.

The couple left for a short wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a blue linen suit with beige accessories and her corsage.

Miss Corzine received her ed cation at Canton High School Corzine, a graduate of High School, is employed by the Champion Employees' Store in Canton. The couple will make their home on Substation Road,

Births

New arrivals at the Haywood County Hospital include: A daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Milner of Canton on July

A son to Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Phillips of Waterville on July 3. A son to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Davis of Waynesville on July 3.

A son to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holcombe of Canton on July 3. A daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Levine of Canton on July

Add dry mustard, Worcestershire sauce and curry powder to a cheese

Your Sportswear HEADQUARTERS THE SMART SHOP

GL 6-8210

KURT GANS — "The Store of Quality"

Main St.

PLUS ALL OTHER COSTUME JEWELRY AS SEEN IN HARPER'S BAZAAR and

VOGUE

All Ladies' SUMMER REDUCED

PARENTS often complain, I end up getting so mad at her "When I try to have fun with my before she wants to stop, that I child, he doesn't know when to just don't enjoy the fun."

quit."

This may occur when a two-year-old youngster has engaged the parent in a pillow fight or when a child, nine, has been romping roughly with one of the parents or when the teen-ager and a parent have engaged in banter. Usually such fun ends unhappily when no rules have been agreed on beforehand.

Rare Moment

This mother evidently shows affection to her daughter so seldom, and the child is so starved for it, that she is not prepared to act conventionally when a rare moment of this cherished pleasure comes.

Both dad and mother should have fun with their child. They should make it the rule to speak been agreed on beforehand.

Strong Affection

The parent who only occasionally shows strong affection to a child may find this youngster is not ready for such to end. Some parents rarely praise the agreeable and likable person. not ready for such to end. child of three, twelve or fifteen, A Few Rules believing that praise will only to be clearly drawn, a few rules have to be clearly drawn, a few neces-

They say to love children and learned the meaning of No, which make them feel wanted. When I he rarely has heard, and to acdo that she becomes a big baby, cept some reasonable and ex-When I try to have fun with her, pected penalties.

One mother, writing of the sary rules observed. The child problems she has with her daughmust know well ahead what to expect from his parent. He has

Play Fair With Children

should make it the rule to speak softly and tenderly to him and to @ 1956, King Features Syndicate, Inc.