Good Citizen
Is Informed
On All Issues

GOOD CITIZENSHIP—A good citizen is interested in the welfare of her community and her country. She is well informed about local and national issues. She is active in discharging her responsibility both to home and to community.

Effective citizenship depends on KNOWING: As a responsible citizen, a woman strives to understand the ideals of American constitutional democracy. She understands the significance of the great documents of constitutional democracy, such as the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution. She is familiar with the great personalities of our national history, their contributions and achievements.

She knows how the government works, its organization and its functions. She is familiar with the record of her elected representatives in local government, in the Congress and the State Legislature.

She keeps herself informed with respect to current issues, pending legislation, national and international developments.

She is aware of "breakdowns" in the operation of government in her own community and the state or nation.

HOME CARE OF CHEESE— Cottage cheese as delivered to store or home is at its best in flavor and texture when received. Cottage cheese will absorb odors of other foods and should be kept tightly covered. Creamed cottage cheese, with its sweet delicate flavor, should be used soon after purchasing to insure maximum flavor quality, preferably within three or four days.

Bar Cookies Spice Iced Coffee

LUSCIOUS BARS WITH A PECAN-PIE FLAVOR — Perfect partner for iced coffee.

SUMMERTIME DESERVES an extra-special coffee klatch. The coffee will be chilled, of course, and with it we suggest that you offer one of the season's best bar-type cookies. If you think we're exaggerating, try this recipe and taste for yourself.

But first the iced coffee. We have a favorite method of preparing it. When we brew our regular breakfast coffee, we make an extra batch. When the extra coffee has cooled, we pour it into a non-metallic container, cover it tightly and store it in the refrigerator. At serving time, the coffee is cold and needs a minimum of ice cubes to chill it further. Milk or cream and sweetening added to taste.

This method works for us because we brew strong coffee to begin with. If you find this way doesn't suit you, try making coffee of the strength you like to drink hot, and then pour it into ice-cube trays and put them in the freezing compartment of your refrigerator. (It's a good idea to have extra ice-cube trays on hand for use in warm weather.) Then at serving time, the frozen coffee cubes may be put into tall glasses and hot coffee (of the strength you like) may be added.

Remember that if you make drip coffee, you will get one result if you pour the boiling water into the pot all at once; another if you pour the water in the pot a little at a time so it filters through slowly. And be sure to stir the coffee after it has dripped through. In our experience, drip coffee is at its best when the full capacity of the pot is used.

Keep superfine granulated sugar on hand for sweetening coffee; it dissolves faster than ordinary granulated sugar. Or make up some simple syrup and store it in a tightly covered jar in the refrigerator. Serve the syrup at iced-coffee time, instead of sugar; it will look attractive if you pour it into a pitcher that matches the one you use for milk or cream.

PECAN BARS

Ingredients: 1 cup sifted flour, 1/2 teaspoon double-acting baking powder, 1/3 cup dark brown sugar (firmly packed), 1/4 cup butter or margarine, 1/4 cup dark brown sugar (firmly packed), 3 tablespoons flour, 2 eggs, 3/4 cup dark corn syrup, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 3/4 cup coarsely chopped pecans.

Method: Sift together 1 cup flour and the baking powder. Stir in 1/3 cup brown sugar. Cut in butter, using pastry blender or two knives, until well blended. (Mixture will look dry.) Pat evenly into bottom of well-greased baking pan (about 12 by 8 by 2 inches). Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven for 10 minutes. Mix 1/4 cup brown sugar and 3 tablespoons flour. Beat eggs enough to combine yolks and whites; add corn syrup, sugar-flour mixture, salt and vanilla; mix well. Pour over partially baked mixture; sprinkle with chopped pecans. Return to oven; bake 25 to 30 minutes longer or until cake tester inserted in oven comes out clean. Cut into bars while warm.

Note: If brown sugar is lumpy, sift before measuring.

In The Dark Of Night
CATLETTSBURG, Ky. (AP) — Things looked pretty dark to the night shift at police headquarters. Chief Ray Castle found this memo on his desk in the morning:
"Ray, the radio in the police car won't work. The lights in the men's restroom are out. Sewer on 34th Street stopped up. The town clock is seven minutes slow, and payday is past due 10 days."
