remoteness and privacy.

Tables have been added at other picnic areas to bring the total to 140, but many outdoor folk will still prefer to spread an old blanket on the reputedly bug-free ground and munch a-chicken wing stretched out under an ancient shade tree.

Running water and rest rooms have been added to the Coon Tree picnicking area, and on weekends securing a table there means a crack-of-dawn start for the ambitious visitor. Assistant Ranger Phil Archibald says frankly, "We could use three times as many tables as we have and they would still be filled on weekends."

At Sycamore Flats, the colored recreation area, rest rooms have been completed with the cooperation of the Brevard FFA boys and a well has been dug.

Another feature of the Pisgah area which is becoming increasingly popular is the private camping areas. Various youth groups, including the Boy Scouts and most of the summer camps in the neighborhood, are permitted to use the site exclusively for an overnight camp-out. Permits are in great demand, and it is estimated that a total of 30,000 camping days will be spent in these areas alone.

The development of recreational areas within the Forest and the building of new links of the Blue Ridge Parkway are opening up a whole world of unspoiled beauties to the lover of nature. Every type of person can find what he seeks—be it lying under the stars on a bed of pine boughs or admiring the scenery from a well upholstered automobile seat.

The three-mile limit of control of oceans around a nation is being widely challenged today, says the National Geographic Society.

Coffee Dessert Is Extraspecial

MOLDED COFFEE DESSERT — Subtle and delicate.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE, Associated Press Food Editor

LIKE COFFEE FLAVOR? Then you'll find this molded dessert a heavenly creation. It's velvet-smooth to the tongue, has an intriguing flavor and looks so pretty when it's turned out of a mold. It's definitely something to put on your list of extra-special company desserts.

Because this sweet calls for four egg yolks we are listing reminders of what you may do with the egg whites you have leftover.

BRAZILIAN CREAM
Ingredients: 1 envelope unflavored gelatin, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 4 egg yolks, 2 cups milk, 2 tablespoons instant coffee, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 cup heavy cream (whipped).

Method: Mix together thoroughly gelatin, sugar and salt in top of double boiler. Beat together egg yolks and 1 cup of the milk; stir into gelatin mixture with the remaining 1 cup milk. Place over boiling water and cook, stirring constantly, until gelatin dissolves and mixture thickens slightly, about 6 minutes. Water in lower part of double boiler may touch bottom of top part. Remove from heat. Add coffee and vanilla; heat with rotary beater just until coffee is dissolved. Chill, stirring occasionally, until mixture mounds slightly when dropped from a spoon. Fold in whipped cream. Turn into a 4-cup mold or use individual molds; chill until firm. Unmold and if desired garnish with additional sweetened whipped cream (flavored with vanilla) and toasted slivered almonds. Makes 8 servings.

TIPS ON EGG WHITES
STORING—If you are not planning to use extra egg whites at once, put them in a tightly covered jar and store in the refrigerator.

MERINGUE SHELLS—Use extra egg whites for making individual hard meringues. Serve the meringue shells with vanilla ice cream and a fresh fruit sauce made of strawberries, raspberries, blueberries or sliced peaches. Chocolate sauce may be substituted for the fresh fruit. Or if chestnuts preserved in sweet syrup are available, you'll find they make an epicurean accompaniment to the meringues and ice cream.

FRUIT WHIP—Dried apricot puree plus sugar to taste may be folded into stiffly beaten egg whites and whipped cream for a flavor-some ending to a meal.

PIE TOPPING—For a mile-high meringue topping for a pie, use extra egg whites. The usual meringue topping for an eight or nine-inch pie calls for three egg whites and six tablespoons of sugar plus salt and flavoring. Five egg whites may be used with ten tablespoons of sugar. Spread the meringue evenly over the pie filling and brown in a preheated hot (400°) oven for twelve to fifteen minutes.

FISH TOPPING—Broiled fish fillets or steaks may be spread with an egg white mixture. For four servings of fish, fold half a cup of mayonnaise-type salad dressing into a stiffly beaten egg white along with a little well drained pickle relish. Spread the fish as soon as it is cooked through with
