Jesus Is the Saviour of Men

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher
Scripture—John 4:39-42; Hebrews 2:9-5:14.

The woman of Samaria to whom Jesus talked told others about Him and what He said, so they asked Him to stay awhile with them, and He stayed two days.

After listening to Jesus many believed, telling the woman, "Now we believe, not because of thy saying, for we have heard Him ourselves and know that He is the Christ."

Paul, writing to the Hebrews, reminds them that Jesus Himself was tempted as we are, but was without sin. He can understand our temptations and help us overcome them.

Though Jesus was the Son of God, He offered up supplications to His Father, becoming the author of eternal salvation to all that obey Him.
MEMORY VERSE—Hebrews 5:9.

Bible Words for Today

PSALMS 119:11—"I have laid up thy word in my heart, that I might not sin against thee." (RSV)

When a Sunday School teacher wrote this verse in a Bible in white ink and gave it to me, a small boy, it had little meaning for me. Today the words have more significance.

The word of God is an unchanging word that can be laid away in our hearts. It is a dynamic word which acts as a purifier of thought and mind. The word of God laid up on a shelf at home is of symbolic value. The word of God laid up in the heart is of intrinsic value. Because of its very nature, it will keep man from sin. The word of God is a word out of this world. It has a touch of divinity that challenges every fiber of a man's being.

The Sunday School teacher may only have copied this verse because it is widely quoted, but it has a real meaning. The word of God does keep us from sin. It will give a man a clean mind and a pure heart.
