lot began about 3:00 o'clock. The conference opened Wednesday morning and will run through Sunday night with 384 delegates and approximately 2,000 other church officials in attendance.

A highlight today was the taking of the first two ballots, and possibly a third tonight, for the election of two new bishops of the jurisdiction. Observers predicted that no minister would receive the necessary majority vote on an early ballot.

The new bishops are to be consecrated at the closing service Sunday night in the main auditorium. They will fill vacancies created by the retirement this week of Bishop Costen J. Harrell, Charlotte, and Bishop Clare Purcell, Birmingham, Ala.

Guest speakers tonight will be Dr. J. A. Engle of the Methodist Board of Missions staff in New York City, and Dr. W. Vernon Middleton, also of the missions board. The Rev. Don Payne, pastor of Long's Chapel, Lake Junaluska, presided at a worship service this afternoon in Memorial Chapel.

Bishop Harrell will preach at the 11 a.m. services Sunday in the auditorium. At 3 p.m. the new $100,000 Paul B. Kern Youth Center will be dedicated by the bishops.

Bishop Purcell will preach at 8 p.m. Sunday at the closing session following the consecration of the new bishops.

Crosby-O'Connor Musical Coming To Strand Sunday

As a Broadway musical comedy, "Anything Goes," boasting one of Cole Porter's greatest scores, ranks as an all-time favorite. As a film, with a fabulous starring cast of Bing Crosby, Donald O'Connor, Jeanne Marie, Mitzi Gaynor and Phil Harris, the ever-fresh, ever-delightful Porter music, and reports have it, a rollicking new story treatment, the Paramount extravaganza opening Sunday at the Strand Theatre, promises to keep the show's fame rolling for a good long time to come.

The story is a natural for weaving in music, dancing and happy hi-jinks without slowing down the merry pace. Crosby and O'Connor are cast as co-stars in an upcoming Broadway show — Bing as the old maestro, Donald as a brash new TV personality. What's needed is a leading lady and off they go to Europe to find one. Trouble is, unknown to each other, they each sign someone: Mitzi Gaynor by Crosby in London, Jeanne Marie by O'Connor in Paris.

The board heard several reports, among them a project to which President Thompson said he would name a committee to investigate in every degree — the high freight rates for Waynesville as compared to those of nearby towns. Thompson said that considerable work and investigation has already been put into a study of the project and he was asking the committee which he would soon name to hold a conference with the proper officials in an effort to see what could be done towards adjusting the rates.
