Central Methodists To Dedicate New Spinnet Piano Sun.

A new spinnet piano in the sanctuary of the Central Methodist Church of Clyde will be dedicated at a special musical program at 4 p.m. Sunday.

The piano was given to the church by a member of the congregation, Mrs. James E. Chambers, in memory of her father, J. M. Fowler.

In addition to the dedicatory ceremony to be conducted by the pastor, the Rev. G. C. Starr, Jr., a musical program will be presented under the direction of Miss Janice Smathers, director of music at the church, assisted by Mr. Dan B. Cooke of Candler at the organ and chimes.

Soloists for the program will be Miss Carolyn Wise of Asheville

Lake Junaluska Trustees Will Meet This Weekend

Fourteen North Carolinians are members of the board of trustees of the Methodist Church's Southeastern summer assembly at Lake Junaluska, which will hold its annual meeting Saturday and Sunday.

Edwin L. Jones, Charlotte businessman and board chairman, said the 46-member group will hear reports of committees and staff members, consider expansion projects and plan the 1957 program.

The Rev. James W. Fowler, Jr., former Forest City pastor, is superintendent and treasurer of the assembly.

Other state members are: Bishop Noland B. Harmon and the Rev. and Richard Hipps of Lake Junaluska.

Hipps Family To Hold Reunion

The Hipps Family Reunion has been set for Sunday, July 29, at the Plains Methodist Church on the Newfound Road, Canton.

The program will begin at 11 a. m. with Scroop Stiles of Asheville as the main speaker. A picnic lunch will be served at noon and the afternoon will be devoted to special singing and fellowship.

Hershel Hipps is president of the family group and Don Hipps is vice president. Frank Rogers and Mrs. W. F. Cole are serving as program chairman for the reunion.

conferences and training schools.

Climaxing the season will be the World Methodist Conference, Sept. 1-12, expected to draw 2,500 clergymen and laymen from 40 countries.

All Children Are Invited To Story Hour

All children, including visitors in the community, are invited to a weekly story hour which is being held at the Haywood County Library under the auspices of the Waynesville Homemakers Club.

The story hour is held each Thursday morning at 10 o'clock in the Children's Room at the Library.

Members of the sponsoring club, who have had wide experience in teaching children, are serving as story tellers. On next Thursday morning the program will be conducted by Mrs. Joe Cathey and Mrs. Frank Kirkpatrick. Mrs. Carl Ratcliffe and Mrs. Ben Phillips were in charge today.

The story hours will continue
