The Way of Christian Fellowship ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—John 13:3-15, 34-35; 1 John 1:2-17; 2 John; 3 John.

At supper with His Apostles, Jesus rose, laid aside His garments. He took a towel with which He girded Himself, then poured water into a bowl and began to wash the feet of the Apostles.

Peter objected to Christ humbling Himself so, but Jesus persisted. When He had finished He sat down and said that as He had washed their feet, He had set an example which they should follow.

John wrote: That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you; that ye also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with His Son.

Also John wrote, If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves. If we confess our sins, God is just to forgive us and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

MEMORY VERSE—John 13:34.

Lake Program Next Week Features Preaching Mission

A five-day "preaching mission," featuring Dr. Pierce Harris of Atlanta, Ga., and Dr. Paul Hardin, Jr., of Birmingham, Ala., will highlight next week's program at the Lake Junaluska Methodist Assembly.

The widely-known Methodist clergymen will alternate preaching at the 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. services in the auditorium, Monday through Friday.

Special music will be provided by the Junaluska Singers under the guidance of Glenn Draper, summer director of music at the assembly.

A native Georgian, Dr. Harris is pastor of First Methodist Church in Atlanta. He is known throughout the South for his forceful preaching, his humor and as a columnist for the Atlanta Journal. He has served his present pastorate for 16 years.

Dr. Hardin is a native of Chester, S. C., and a former member of the Western North Carolina Methodist Conference, having served as pastor of Wesley Memorial Methodist Church in High Point before transferring to Birmingham. He is also a former pastor of the First Methodist Church here.

He has been minister of Birmingham's First Methodist Church since 1949. Under his leadership the church membership has increased to 4,700 and has completed a $400,000 building campaign. He is well known throughout Alabama for his weekly radio program over Station WBRC.

Both ministers received their theological training at the Candler School of Theology, Emory University, in Atlanta.

Churches Should Welcome Stranger, Rev. Shearer Says

The Rev. Russell Shearer, chairman of the Birmingham, England, Methodist district, said Tuesday at Lake Junaluska that "we who belong to the church aren't always as eager and active as we might be in making way for the newcomer."

He said that "we must avoid hardening the church like a club and make it that divine family where every member is welcome."

The speaker, who is a former president of the Methodist Conference in Great Britain, told his congregation that the "primary characteristic of the ordinary member of the Christian church is stewardship."

The British minister said that it is one thing to get a person "to the point of conversion" and quite another to get him to join in the activities of the church.

Local Witnesses Plan To Attend Georgia Meeting

The Waynesville congregation of Jehovah's witnesses is making preliminary plans to attend a four-day District Convention in Augusta, Ga., August 16-19, it was announced last night.

Roger Decelles, presiding minister of the group, in discussing this announcement with the congregation pointed to the challenge to Christian thinking and Christian works in the rising tide of materialism.

"The object of the convention," Dr. Decelles said, "is to equip everyone of the preaching fellowship of Jehovah's witnesses in the practical use of the Bible as a help in fortifying the spiritual morale of people in our community."

The announcement came as a climax to the weekly ministry-development program held at the Kingdom Hall, 129 High St. Mr. Decelles said that Jehovah's witnesses are enrolled in ministerial training of at least five classes weekly. "We maintain," he emphasized, "that if a religion is worth believing it is worth putting into practice."

Rev. Dumont Clarke To Be Honored Saturday Night

Methodists from throughout the South who are attending the annual Town and Country Conference at Lake Junaluska will pay tribute Saturday night to a Presbyterian minister and rural church specialist, the Rev. Dumont Clarke of Asheville.

The program at 8 p.m. Saturday has been planned especially in recognition of Dr. Clarke's service to rural churches, particularly for his work as religious director of the Farmer's Federation for 26 years and his promotion of the "Lord's Acre" plan.

Dr. James W. Sells of Atlanta, Ga., executive secretary of the Methodist Church's Southeastern Jurisdictional Council and himself a specialist in rural church work, will preside at the program honoring Dr. Clarke.

With Asheville as headquarters, the "Lord's Acre" plan of setting aside revenue from special crops for church work has spread across the country until today more than 10,000 churches are regular beneficiaries. The plan is used in 44 states, Canada and in numerous foreign countries, according to the Farmer's Federation.

The Town and Country Conference opens here today and runs through Sunday. "A New Strategy for the Rural Church" is the program theme, Dr. Sells said.

Saturday afternoon the group will hold an "old time dinner on the ground," and then visit several rural churches and community projects in Haywood County.

Dr. C. Ralph Arthur, president of Ferrum Junior College, Ferrum, Va., will address the group at the Thursday night opening session at Lambuth Inn.

The speakers at Sunday's closing sessions in the main auditorium will be Bishop Roy H. Short, Nashville, Tenn., at 11 a.m., and Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, Jackson, Miss., at 8 p.m.

White Oak Church Sets Homecoming, Decoration Day

The annual Homecoming and Decoration will be observed at the Pigeon Baptist Church, White Oak, on August 11. The observance will start at 10 a.m. at the Teague cemetery and continue at the church at 11 a.m.

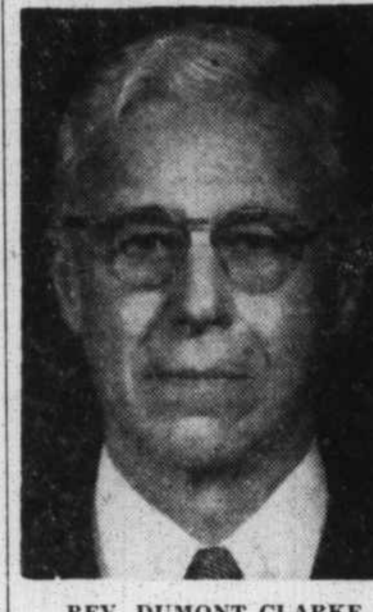

The public is invited to come and bring a picnic basket.

All singers have a special invitation. The Teague cemetery will be cleaned on Thursday, August 9. Everyone who has friends or relatives buried here is asked to come help.

20 Jehovah's Witnesses Attend N. C. Seminar

Twenty members of the Waynesville congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses have returned from a four-day seminar in Winston-Salem. Some 7,491 persons from 17 states representing 250 congregations assembled in the four-day training program. The convention was one of 40 being held this summer by the group throughout the United States and Canada.

Speakers at the convales laid stress on fulfilling the requirements and obligations of the ministry.

Morning Star Charge Planning MYF Youth Week

Youth Activities Week for the Morning Star and Long's Methodist churches near Canton will begin at Long's Church next Sunday evening with a fellowship supper at 6 p.m.

Following the supper, there will be a special service at 7:30 p.m. for the congregations of the two churches, with the visiting Youth Caravan in charge.

The Methodist Youth Fellowships of the two churches are sponsoring the annual youth week. Meetings will be held through Friday of the following week, beginning each evening at 6:30. The program will be held at Long's Church Sunday, Monday, Tuesday evenings, and at Morning Star on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings.

Directing the activities of the week will be a Methodist Youth Caravan, composed of Miss Mary Jo Whitted of Canton, and presently a student at Duke University; Richard Howle, a student for the ministry at Duke; and Henry Flowers, also a ministerial student at Duke. These young people have been working as a team during the summer, visiting several of the churches in Western North Carolina.

The general theme for the week will be "Making a Stronger Witness for Christ through the MYF."

Assisting in the planning and direction of the week's activities are Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sharp counselors for the Morning Star MYF; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Denton counselors for the Long's MYF; the Woman's Societies of the two churches who will serve refreshments each evening; and the members of the Youth Fellowship groups in each church.

All the youth in this area are invited to attend.

Warning was given to avoid the materialistic way of life so prevalent in the world today.

Emphasis was placed on seeking the things of God (fruits of the spirit such as love, joy, goodness, peace, mildness, long suffering, kindness, self-control, against which there is no law).

Jesus washes the disciples' feet. "A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another."—John 13:34.
