IT WON'T BE LONG NOW until the WTHS stadium is filled with eager fans, watching the Waynesville Mountaineer football team in action on the floodlighted gridiron. Looking forward to the opening of the football season, always a high spot in the life of students, are (from left) Jean McDaniels, daughter of Mrs. Wade McDaniels and the late Wade McDaniels, 509 Meadow St., Waynesville, and Linda Kay Smith, daughter of Cpl. and Mrs. Pritchard H. Smith of the Balsam Road, Hazelwood. Both girls are in the eighth grade at Waynesville Junior High School. (Mountaineer Photo).

BRUSHING UP ON HIS STUDIES, Neal Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Kelly of Bethel, prepares to enter the University of North Carolina this fall as Haywood County's Morehead Scholarship winner. A glass of milk at right helps Neal keep up his studying energy. (Mountaineer Photo).

School Cleanup Is Huge Job

Tidying up after a houseful of youngsters is no small chore, as any harassed mother will be the first to admit, but cleaning after a whole school-ful taxes the imagination—and the backbone! It means a full-time job for the men and women who handle such chores for the county schools. Those who will do this work this year at the various schools are as follows: Waynesville High, John Haney, James Burgess, Paul Shelton, Lilly V. Haney, and Mae Burr Burgess; Hazelwood, Haskel Davis and Frankie M. Putnam; Central Elementary, John Williams and Christabell Williams; Rock Hill, Fred Norris; Lake Junaluska, Jack Smith;

Maggie, Raymond Rathbone, Saunook, Vaughan Conner; Allens Creek, Maggie, W. Mehafey; Mt. Sterling, J. C. Hopkins; Fines Creek, Clyde Beasley and Edna M. Rathbone; Clyde, W. M. Caldwell and Lucy Allen; Crabtree, Elmer Gillett and Jewell Gillett; Bethel, Paul Hoglen, Willie Carver and Cora Lee Metcalf; Cruso, Fanning Burress.

Men Behind The Scenes Coordinate School System

The many board and committee meetings which are necessary to insure the smooth running of the county schools are often overlooked, but nearly three dozen men serve as members of the Board of Education or as district committeemen to coordinate the functioning of the school system. Chairman of the Board of Education is Jarvis R. Caldwell and members are Mark Kirkpatrick, J. W. Killian, Hugh McCracken, and Clifton S. Terrell.

For the Waynesville district, Guy Massie is committee chairman. His committee consists of Jim Noland, Paul Bryson, Robert Ferguson and Jack Leatherwood. In Clyde, Carlton Corzine has been named chairman following the resignation of Grover Haynes. Others are Roy McKinnish, James Winfrey, Roland Leatherwood and Jack Harris.

Kimsey Palmer. Fines Creek has Frank Rathbone as chairman, assisted by Joe Davis, Ernest Rogers, Mark Ferguson and Cecil Teaster. David Vance is Bethel district chairman. Serving with him are Ray Mease, James Reeves, Dois Rogers and David Edwards. Mt. Sterling committeemen are J. M. Caldwell, Hardy Phillips and Edwin Pearson. Mark Hannah serves alone in Cataloochee district.

FIT MOST IMPORTANT
Properly fitted shoes for school children, whose bones have not yet matured, are most important to correct development of the feet.

Over 120 Teachers To Fill Positions In Waynesville

M. H. Bowles will again head the Waynesville district as superintendent, with C. E. Weatherby principal of the high school. Elementary school principals are Carl Ratcliffe, Hazelwood; Claud Rogers, Central Elementary; Frank L. Rogers, East Waynesville; Jesse C. James, Rock Hill; Ruth S. Noland, Lake Junaluska; Norval W. Rogers, Maggie; Barbara B. Burgin, Saunook and Edna F. Rogers, Allens Creek. On the district teachers list are the following: Virginia Dare McClure, Ethel C. Sloan, Margaret J. Terrell, Frances F. Arnette, Marietta W. Campbell, Doris Long Moore, Helen C. Beraza, Thomas J. Scott, Jr., Harriett Ellen Phoenix, Mary Massie Weatherby, Sara F. Thomas, Margaret Irene Chambers.
