

County Humane Group Protest Shooting Of Dog

The board of directors of the Haywood Humane Association said today they were preparing a resolution protesting the killing of a small pet dog in the Thickety area.

The Humane officials conducted a hearing on the matter, and announced the decision for framing the resolution after all facts were ascertained in the case.

The resolution the officers of the Association said would embody a general protest for the killing of the pet, and "call to the attention of the County Commissioners the necessity of providing a suitable shelter and a humane method of destroying unwanted animals, to the end that lawful taxes may be collected on wanted animals through recovery, and that vicious, rabid or wild dogs may be properly and humanely destroyed, preventing the destruction of valuable

W. E. MICHAEL, JR., is the new Governor of Lions Club District 31-A.

Michael Named Lions Governor

Haywood County's five Lions Clubs — Clyde, Hazelwood, Pigeon Valley, Canton and Waynesville — are under the jurisdiction of W. E. (Ed) Michael, Jr., of West Asheville, newly-elected District 31-A Governor for the 1956-57 club year.

Michael, who served as deputy district governor during the past year, succeeded Lawrence B. Leatherwood of Waynesville as governor of 35 clubs with 1,607 members in 12 western mountain counties for the new club year which began July 1.

He has also served as president of the West Asheville Club, chairman of Zone 2, Region 2, and District 31-A Cabinet Secretary-Treasurer.

The new WNC Lions leader has been master of John A. Nichols Lodge No. 650, AF and AM, chairman of the West Asheville Division of the United Fund of Asheville and Buncombe County; and a member of the Review Board of the Buncombe County Committee on Public Solicitations.

South Clyde CDP Plans Work On Cemetery 24th

By MRS. KYLE LINDSEY, Community Reporter

The C.D.P. held their regular meeting at the Community House Monday night. Lloyd Justice, vice-chairman, was in charge. A short devotion was held.

The business was centered around the cemetery. Plans for building a small house for the mowers and other tools was brought up. The group of men who have been mowing the grass feel that those who have lots and are interested should help on the expenses. Donations can be given to Van Deaver, Lloyd Justice, Kyle Lindsey, or Sam Jackson.

The women of the community will have a picnic lunch Friday, August 24th, around 6:30 p.m. The men will mow off the cemetery again and anyone who will bring their mowers are asked to come and help out that afternoon. The men will meet in the early afternoon to mow and have supper in the late afternoon.

The road signs at the entrance of the two coves which were at the community house, was voted to be changed, since the street sign was erected at the community house. The Cathey Cove road sign will be erected at the top of the hill, where the street ends, and the other one near the Louisa Chapel Church.

The H. D. Club held a workshop on copper, all day Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Curtis Rogers.

A picnic lunch was enjoyed by the group with 16 members present.

The W.S.C.S. of Louisa Chapel had a supper at the Community House last Saturday night, for the official board members of the church. The money received will go into the treasury of the Society.

The next meeting of the W.S. C.S. will be held next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Troy Rhinehart. This will be an all day meeting.
