Grounds of Christian Assurance

CHRIST SHOWS HOW TO BANISH ANXIETY

Scripture—Matthew 6:25-34; 1 John 2:28-5:21.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

OUR FIRST lesson on the banishment of anxiety comes from Matthew's account of part of Christ's Sermon on the Mount. People in His day were just as much in need of comfort on that ever present problem of needless worrying as we are today.

Looking to a great crowd of people, Jesus pointed to the birds flying overhead. They do not sow seeds for food, nor do they reap it as man does, neither do they store it for future needs. Yet food is provided for them by their heavenly Father, and Jesus said: "Are ye not much better than they?"

Then why worry about clothes? consider the wild flowers. They do not toil nor spin, yet even King Solomon, in all his glory, could not rival their glorious colors.

"Therefore I say unto you, take no thought for your life, what ye eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not life more than meat, and the body than raiment?"

We know we must plan for our food, housing, clothes, etc. Christ Himself planned for the future. He chose 12 disciples and trained them to preach the gospel when He had left them. Why fret and worry? It does harm and no good. Why not have faith that if you meet with problems tomorrow, you can, with the help of our heavenly Father, overcome them?

"But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you."

"Take therefore no thought for tomorrow; for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof."—Matthew 6:34.

You will notice that St. John, in his epistles, addresses his readers as "little children." He is not writing to youngsters, however, but to all Christian people. He is thought to have been about 90 years old at this time.

In beginning the third chapter of his first epistle, John calls attention to the love of God in calling us His sons. "What manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God? Do we appreciate that beautiful fact? Do we try to act as His sons, daughters, children?"

If our hearts do not condemn us in these things, "then we have confidence in God, and whatsoever we ask, we receive of Him, because we keep His commandments."

"And this is His commandment. That we should believe on the name of His Son Jesus Christ, and love one another."

John warns of false prophets, as Jesus did also. There are many in our world who tempt us to be

"And this is His commandment. That we should believe on the name of His Son Jesus Christ, and love one another."

John warns of false prophets, as Jesus did also. There are many in our world who tempt us to be disloyal to our faith. Shun them. "We are of God; he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God, heareth not us."

Again, as in our last lesson, John speaks of the need for love one to another. Hatred toward even an evil doer hurts the hater more than the hated. Learn to try to understand others, even if they do us wrong. "Love your enemies; do good to them that hate you," Christ said.

"This is a truth that should be emphasized to even small children. Teach them that love is indeed better than hate, and if there is hatred in the heart of any, show that by casting it out and doing a kind deed to the hated one, following the Lord's will, love will replace hate.

"Beloved, let us love one another; for love is of God; and everyone that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God, for God is love."

SECURITY

Security is everyone's byword in this era of tension, anxiety, and bristling competition. It's the goal of government, industry, business, family, and nations.

Security generally means being sure of something, or even someone. But, no one gets security without giving. It is not self-accomplished. Other people and factors contribute in providing our security.

Above all, God alone is the source of security and serenity. Society cancels out our security with finality when we run afoul of its standards, whereas God endows us with the privilege of obtaining forgiveness and mending our ways.

How secure are we against the disasters and perils of life and against our own imperfections? To find the answer, turn to God's Church where we will find the fountain of security.

HOLY BIBLE

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
