Waynesville Kindergarten Sets Opening

The Waynesville Kindergarten will begin its fifteenth year on Wednesday, September 5, in the First Methodist Church.

The kindergarten, taught by Mrs. E. K. Herman, will enroll children three and a half to six years old. Mrs. Hollis Chase is assistant to Mrs. Herman.

An orientation period for new children and their mothers will be held Tuesday afternoon September 4 from 3 to 5 o'clock.

The kindergarten program includes free play, directed play, work periods, singing and folk dancing, rhythm band, stories, dramatizations, devotions, a rest period, and mid-morning snack.

Mrs. Herman may be reached at her home in Thomas Park after 6 p.m. for further information.

The Mikado To Be Presented At High Valley

The Gilbert and Sullivan opera, "The Mikado," will be presented by campers at High Valley, Wednesday, August 22, at 8 p.m.

Directed by Sol Cohen, this will be an open air production to which the public is invited. No admission will be charged.

High Valley Camp is located near Cruso at the old Gwyn farm.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT HENRY BURRESS were married Sunday in the Beulah Baptist Church. Mrs. Burress is the former Miss Freda Grey Hipps, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Jack Hipps of Canton. (Photo by Paul's Studio.)

Freda Grey Hipps Weds Robert Henry Burress

Miss Freda Grey Hipps, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Jack Hipps of Canton, became the bride of Robert Henry Burress, son of Mrs. William Henry Burress of Canton, and the late Mr. Burress, Sunday, August 12, at 4 p.m. in the Beulah Baptist Church.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. C. Revis, pastor of the church. A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Charles Ward, pianist, of Canton, and Miss Jewel Rhinehart, vocalist, of Clyde.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz length gown of white embroidered organdy, fashioned with short cap sleeves, round neckline, and full skirt.

Her three tiered veil of illusion was attached to a cap of matching organdy, and she wore mits of tulle. She carried a white Bible, a gift of the Y.W.A. of the church, covered with a white orchid and baby's breath, and showered with streamers.

Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Rita Mae Hipps was her sister's maid of honor, and Mrs. Roy Jenkins, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. Their dresses were of orchid embroidered organdy over taffeta, designed with fitted bodice, and full skirts with wide sashes. They wore bandeaux of orchid and yellow flowers, and carried bouquets of yellow carnations and gladioli.

Miss Katy Hipps, sister of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress of yellow organdy was designed like those of the honor attendants. She carried a basket of rose petals.

William R. Wooten of Clyde was best man. Ushers were Wayne Harris and Max West of Canton, and Henry Shook of Clyde. Tommy David Moore, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer.

Following the ceremony a reception was held on the lawn at the home of the bride's parents. Assisting were: Miss Mary Sue Mann, Mrs. Robert Atkinson, Mrs. Woodrow W. Moore, Mrs. Wayne Harris, Mrs. George Rogers, Mrs. Spellman McClure, Miss Barbara Sue McGowan, Mrs. Claude Moore, Mrs. Glenn Stamey, Mrs. Orville Kyle, and Mrs. Charles Moore.
