J. D. Freeman Dies At 47

Jeffrie David Freeman, 47, of Waynesville, died Wednesday afternoon in Haywood County Hospital after a lengthy illness.

He was a native of Haywood County and was a graduate of Waynesville schools and Mars Hill and Western Carolina College. He was a member of the Waynesville Baptist Church.

He served in World War II in the Office of Strategic Service. He was a former teacher in Haywood County schools and was a civil service employe in Washington after World War II.

Funeral services were held at 4 p.m. today in the First Baptist Church. The Rev. T. E. Robinett officiated and burial was in Greenhill Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Rufus Ratcliffe, Ben Phillips, Douglas Worsham, Milas Ferguson, J. B. Siler and Henry Foy.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Freeman of Waynesville; and a sister, Miss Hattie Freeman of Waynesville.

Garrett Funeral Home was in charge.

Mrs. Henry, Haywood Native, Passes At 94

Mrs. Mattie Owen Henry, a descendant of pioneer Haywood County families, died this morning in a Clyde Nursing Home. She was 94.

Mrs. Henry was the daughter of Robert L. and Margaret Murray Owen, both of Haywood County. She made her home on Jonathan Creek until later years when she lived with a daughter, Mrs. C. B. Medford, in Canton. She was the widow of James R. Henry.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Medford, Mrs. L. C. Deitz of Baldwin Park, Calif., and Mrs. J. E. Toy of Waynesville; two sons, Frank Henry of Waynesville, Route 2, and Rowe Henry of Canton; 17 grandchildren, including Mrs. Rufus Ratcliffe, whom she reared; one brother, C. F. Owen of Canton; and one sister, Mrs. F. A. Burgin of Asheville.

The body will remain at the Crawford Funeral Home, Waynesville. Funeral arrangements were incomplete this morning.

the left shoulder and possible fractured collar bone. Ruth Elaine Henson received laceration of the foot and cuts and abrasions on the back.

Mrs. Koebornik suffered bruises, and Koebornik's son received lacerations on his back.

Patrolman Wooten said that the driver's attention apparently wandered from the road and the car swerved across to the shoulder which caved in. The car turned over probably three or four times.

The Henson boy made his way down the road to a point where State prisoners were working. The prison truck, equipped with patrol radio, called for assistance. The foreman and a trusty returned with him to help in getting the victims up the 100-foot slope.

Deputy Gene Howell assisted Patrolman Wooten in bringing the injured persons to the hospital. Koebornik was brought to the hospital in an ambulance, and Howell drove the other six.

No charges have been filed, the officer said.

LOUISIANA FOLK INJURED

Four Louisiana visitors were injured about 8 a.m. this morning when their 1956 Dodge collided with a 1950 Ford at the intersection of U.S. 19-19A at Lake Junaluska. The fifth passenger in the car was unhurt.

Patrolman Harold Dayton said that three women were in the hospital undergoing X-rays to determine the extent of their injuries and the driver of the car, husband of one and father of the others, suffered severe bruises about the chest.

The officer's report showed that Howard Claire Eshelman of Lafayette, La., driver of the Dodge, pulled out in the path of the Ford, driven by David Hugh Tate, 20, of Iron Duff. Mrs. Eshelman and two daughters, Mrs. Carol Ackal, 25, and Mary Katherine Eshelman, 21, were injured. Diane Sue, 12, was thrown out of the car atop Mrs. Ackal. Tate was not injured.

The Dodge was estimated to be damaged at $400 and the Ford at $300.

Eshelman was charged with failing to yield right-of-way, while Tate was charged with driving after his operator's license had expired.

TWO YOUNG WOMEN HURT IN WRECK

Two young women were injured, neither seriously, when the car in which they were passengers left the road and overturned about 6:30 p.m. Monday. The accident occurred on the Hyatt Creek Road just above the Dayton Rubber plant, according to investigating officer W. R. Wooten. A third passenger was uninjured.

He was captain of every team he played on.

Milner returned here and became associated with the Health Department as senior sanitarian in June 1952, a post he held until he resigned to take the coaching position in Brevard. He majored in English, health and physical education in college.

The Alaskan brown bear is the size of a rat at birth. Cubs are usually born while the mother is dened up for the winter, and weigh 15 to 20 pounds when she leaves the den.

sumed to have been driven by Manson Jenkins of Branner Avenue, Waynesville, left the road and turned over several times, landing in Swift's pasture, Mrs. Bill Walls, 14, of Route 2, Waynesville, received a cut on her head; and Josephine Smith, 17, of Route 1, Waynesville, a cut ear. Both women were dismissed from the hospital after dispensary treatment.

Bill Walls, also a passenger, was not injured.

Patrolman Wooten estimated the damage at $150, terming the car "a total loss." No charges have been filed.

Accused Man Silent On Charges

Sheriff Fred Y. Campbell said this morning that the 31-year-old unemployed Canton father of six, charged with incest involving his 16-year-old daughter and with rape of his 11½-year-old daughter, refused to talk. Sheriff Campbell said that the father would neither deny nor admit the charges, although the man had been questioned on several occasions by Sheriff Campbell and S. B. I. agent P. R. Kitchen.

A 51-year-old brother-in-law also held in jail on a charge of rape of the 11½-year-old girl, had earlier made a full confession to the officers.

Brothers Jailed Following Wreck

Two brothers are being held in jail, following a crash at the corner of Main and Boundary Streets mid-afternoon Wednesday.

Their car knocked down a street corner mail box, on a concrete post, and tore the bark from a tree in a yard.

Deputy Gene Howell who was starting to eat in a nearby restaurant, heard the crash, called police, and three policemen: Turner, Swanger and Setzer — started on the chase and arrested Raymond and Harry Waits on Vance Street.

The officers are continuing their investigation. No formal charges have been made.

Postmaster Enos Boyd said both the post and mail box were a total loss.

There were 43,309 foreign citizens in the United States for educational purposes in 1955-56.
