Miss McClure Is Married To T. D. Ingold

Miss Nina Elizabeth McClure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Floyd McClure of Waynesville, became the bride of Torrence David Ingold, son of Mrs. Catherine Elliott of Charlotte, Saturday, August 11, at 4 p.m. in the First Baptist Church here.

The Rev. Paul Mull performed the double ring ceremony. A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Peg Robinson, organist, and Miss Peggy Hoover and Miss Lois Watkins, soloists, all of Charlotte.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her dress was fashioned of white eyelet embroidered organdy over pale blue taffeta and she wore a matching picture hat. She carried a Victorian bouquet of white chrysanthemums, circled with lace and white satin streamers.

Mrs. Earl D. Crawford, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a street length dress of pale blue voile and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers.

Glenn Elliott of Charlotte was best man and ushers were James D. McClure, Edwin McClure, and Earl Crawford.

Mr. Ingold is a graduate of Belmont Abbey and served in the Navy. He is now employed with Crane Company in Charlotte.

Mrs. Ingold graduated from Waynesville Township High School and is now employed as a secretary with the J. B. Ivey Company in Charlotte.

Following the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip to Radium Springs, Georgia after which they will make their home in Charlotte.

Miss Trantham Is Bride Of C. D. Littlejohn

Miss Jean Trantham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Trantham of Canton, Route 3, became the bride of Charles David Littlejohn, foster son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Holden, of Hudson, Saturday, August 18, at 6 p.m. in the Canton Calvary Baptist Church.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ben L. Ray, pastor of the church.

The wedding music was presented by Mrs. Caeslon Hipps, organist, and Carl Painter, Jr., vocalist.

The couple entered together. The bride wore a waltz-length gown of white nylon lace, fashioned with long tapering sleeves and sabrina neckline. The bouffant skirt was designed with a scalloped peplum and her fingertip tiered veil of illusion fell from a matching cap of lace. She carried a white Bible topped with white carnations and showered with baby's breath.

Ushers were James A. Trantham, brother of the bride, and Wray Freeman of Rutherfordton.

Following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained at a buffet supper. Forty guests were present including members of the families and out-of-town guests.

For a brief wedding trip the bride wore a dress of pink polished cotton with white accessories.

Mrs. Littlejohn was graduated from Canton High School and attended Gardner-Webb College. The bridegroom was graduated from Hudson High School and Gardner-Webb College and plans to continue his studies at Carson-Newman College in Jefferson City, Tenn. this fall.
