Cancer Meeting Is Set For Friday Night

A meeting to discuss the organization of a county chapter of the American Cancer Society has been set for Friday, August 24, at 8 p.m. at the Health Center.

The meeting has been prompted by the fact that 40 per cent of the $2200 raised in the recent Cancer Drive will remain in the county if such a chapter exists.

The organization will require a board of directors, composed of at least one physician. Its purpose will be for education and service in the field of cancer diagnosis and treatment in Haywood County.

Miss Betsey Lane Quinlan, field representative of the Western District, ACS, will attend the meeting and present details of the organization and program.

It is hoped that representatives of all civic groups will attend. Everyone is invited.

The Cancer Drive was sponsored McCrory was introduced by James McC. Clarke, Federation president and master of ceremonies at the picnic.

Mark and Phyllis Leopold, RFD 3, Waynesville won the prize given for the best local act while the Youth Choir from Ratcliffe Cove Baptist Church led by Mrs. Mark Palmer, RFD 3, Waynesville won the choir competition.

Glenn Hunt, Farmers Federation Poultry Department manager, outlined the Federation's broiler, hatching egg and commercial egg programs and urged interested farmers to contact him about participation in these programs.

"Panhandle Pete" Nash and Gaither Robinson, Asheville and Steve Ledford, Bakersville were the featured entertainers along with Joe Franklin, Darryl Petty and Jimmy Buchanan, all of Morganton; Linda and Patsy Neal, Franklin and Brenda Rice, Asheville.

Other speakers were Roger Ammons, Waynesville store manager; John Gardner, Canton store manager; Rev. Dumont Clarke, religious department director and Max Roberts, educational director.

Local entertainers were Jo Ann Mills, RFD 1, Waynesville; Tupy Smith, Sylva; Mary Frances Brendle and Mary Joe Baper, RFD 1, Candler; Clio Geer and her son, Allen, Columbus; Dale Spurlin, Columbus; Charles Newman, RFD 2, Waynesville.

Other contest winners were Frank Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ross, and Mr. and Mrs. George Price.

First Graders Must Have Birth Certificates

All children entering the first grade must present birth certificates on the first day of school, according to North Carolina law. First graders must have reached their sixth birthday on or before October 16.

Children born in Haywood county may get birth certificates without charge from the Register of Deeds.

Immunization against smallpox, diphtheria, and whooping cough is also required of the beginners.

by the Beta Sigma Phi in the Waynesville area and home demonstration clubs in the Canton area.
