

Haywood Primary Teachers To Hold Health Workshop

A Health Education workshop for Haywood County teachers of first, second, and third grades will be held in the Hazelwood School Cafeteria, Thursday, September 6, from 2:30 until 4:30 p.m.

Attending the meeting, in addition to the teachers, will be Miss Grace Daniels, health educator; Miss Moldred Barry, nutritionist; Dr. Raymond K. Butler, health officer of Haywood County; Dr. Doris B. Hammett, child specialist; school superintendents, supervisors, and public health nurses.

Rowe Henry, superintendent of the Canton Schools, will preside. This is one of a series of such meetings of teachers to be held on various grade levels, carrying out plans formulated at a Health Planning Conference held at the Health Center last spring.

HUMANE MEETING POSTPONED

The regular September meeting of the Haywood County Humane Association, scheduled for the first Monday each month, will be postponed one week because of Labor Day, and will be held Monday, September 10 at 8 p.m. in the L.ewis lounge in Waynesville.

Boone-Campbell Bridal Party Is Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Massie and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Way entertained Saturday evening in the Massie home on Pigeon Road in honor of Miss Sara Boone and Floyd Oren Campbell and members of their bridal party. The affair followed the wedding rehearsal.

A bridal motif was used in the dining room decorations. The table was covered with a white lace cloth over satin and had as a centerpiece a silver bowl of white asters and baby's breath. Mixed arrangements were used in the living rooms.

The guests in addition to Miss Boone and Mr. Campbell were Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Boone, parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Campbell, Miss Karen Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Hawthorne Campbell and son, and Talmadge Campbell, all of Spindale, Mr. and Mrs. James K. Boone, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Boone, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Boone and sons, Gene and Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. James Jeter, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Siler, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Isley, the Rev. and Mrs. L. E. Wiggins, Miss Nancy Killian, Miss Ruth Helen Boone, Miss Linda Boone, and Bill Martin.

MRS. FLOYD OREN CAMPBELL is the former Miss Sara Elizabeth Boone. She was married yesterday afternoon in the Francis Cove Methodist Church. (H. B. Norton Photo).

Miss Sara Elizabeth Boone Weds Floyd Oren Campbell

Miss Sara Elizabeth Boone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roberts Haygood Boone of Waynesville, became the bride of Floyd Oren Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence C. Campbell of Spindale, in the Francis Cove Methodist Church, Sunday afternoon at four-thirty o'clock.

The Rev. L. E. Wiggins, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony. Miss Linda Boone, sister of the bride, pianist, and Charles L. Isley, Jr., soloist, presented the wedding music.

The altar was decorated with floor baskets of white gladioli and branched candelabra with a background of palms. Candles and ivy were used in the windows and altar rail.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her waltz-length gown of white French illusion was appliqued with Chantilly lace and was designed with sweetheart neckline of lace studded with seed pearls, yoke of illusion, and full bouffant skirt. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a band of lace embroidered with seed pearls and she carried a bride's Bible with a white orchid.

Miss Ruth Helen Boone was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant. Her ballerina-length dress was fashioned of pale blue net with lace panels over taffeta. She wore a half-hat of matching net over taffeta and carried a cascade bouquet of mixed flowers.

Mr. Campbell served as best man for his son and ushers were Hawthorne and Talmadge Campbell of Spindale, brothers of the bridegroom, Joe Boone of Asheville, and Allen Boone of Waynesville, brothers of the bride.

The parents of the bride entertained with an informal reception in their home following the ceremony. Guests included members of the families, the bridal party, and out-of-town guests.

Mrs. Boone, mother of the bride wore a dress of navy crepe with navy and rose accessories and her corsage was of rose-colored carnations. Mrs. Campbell, mother of the bridegroom wore a light blue dress with white accessories and her corsage was of white carnations.

Assisting were Mrs. Charles Way, Mrs. Bruce Jaynes, Mrs. Joe Boone, Mrs. Allen Boone, Mrs. Rufus Siler, Mrs. James Jeter, Mrs. James K. Boone, Miss Bess Francis, and Mrs. Pink Francis.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a brown printed taffeta

MISS ANNA LOUISE MCBRIDE is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carl McBride of Waynesville, who announce her engagement to Frank Edwin Chambers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Weaver Chambers of Clyde, Route 1. The wedding is planned for November 3.

Howard Coman Shook, who has been employed for the summer by Champion Fibre Company in Hamilton, Ohio, has returned to his home in Clyde. He will enter Mars Hill College this fall.

sheath dress with beige duster and brown accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from her Bible.

Mrs. Campbell was graduated from the Waynesville High School and is now a rising senior at Appalachian State Teachers College at Boone.

Mr. Campbell was graduated from Rutherfordton-Spindale Central High School and received his Bachelor of Science degree from Appalachian State Teachers College last spring. He will return to the college this fall for graduate study.

The couple will be at home at 120 Brown Street, Boone.

Joel Rothermel Celebrates 16th Birthday

Joel Rothermel celebrated his sixteenth birthday with a dinner-dance Thursday evening at The Lodge. He was assisted in entertaining by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Rothermel.

The guests included Miss Lynda Henry, Miss Susan Prevost, Miss Patience Ray, Miss Nancy Phillips, Miss Connie Jamison, Miss Lynn Metzger, Miss Nancy Rector, Miss Nancy Prevost, Skipper Sloan, David Ensley, Johnny Carswell, David Russell, Joe Russell, Mark Riechter, and David Hardwick.
