

212 Horses Thrill Canton Show Crowd

The largest number of entries ever received at a Canton horse show, according to Chairman W. W. Morgan, yielded honors to Patty Morgan in Canton's annual Labor Day horse show Monday.

Morgan said that there were 96 horses and a total of 212 entries, coming from Aiken, Greenville, Spartanburg and Clemson, S. C., as well as from western North Carolina.

Patty Morgan's Golden Dan was named champion and her Golden Boy, reserve champion, at the termination of the show events. The championship was determined by the number of points accumulated by a mount in the various classes.

The winners in each division with horse, owner and rider in that order follow; however, if the owner is the rider only the one name will be shown:
