The Source of Human Conflicts ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher
Scriptures—Luke 22:31-34; 54-62; James 3-4.

Jesus told Peter that Satan was tempting him, but He was praying for him. Peter insisted that he would go to prison or death with Jesus, but Christ said that the cock would not crow three times before he would deny Him.

Jesus was taken before the high priest, Peter following at a distance. A maid in the house looked at Peter steadfastly and said he was with Jesus, and he denied it. Later two men accused him and again Peter denied it hotly.

Peter heard the cock crow three times, and as he started to leave the house Jesus looked at him. Then Peter remembered what Christ had told him, that he would deny Him thrice, and Peter left the house weeping bitterly.

James warns what discord evil speaking brings. "Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil." God will help us. MEMORY VERSE—Psalm 19:14.

The Golden Text

Peter's denial of Christ.
"Let the words of my mouth, and the meditations of my heart, O Lord, be acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my Redeemer." Psalm 19:14.
