Hendersonville To Build Its Offense Around Elliott

In their quest for a third straight Blue Ridge Conference football crown, the Hendersonville Bearcats will have another stone wall up front this season, but the backfield is a different story...

Gone are the team's talented T-formation quarterback of 1954 and 1955—Don Heilig—and two jet-propelled halfbacks—Doyle Mintz and Jim Brinkley.

Whether Coach Bob Tate can fill the shoes of Messrs. Heilig, Mintz, and Brinkley still remains to be seen, but it appears that the Bearcat offense will depend heavily on Elliott...

In the fracas, Elliott galloped 66 yards for a touchdown the first time he got his hands on the ball and later scored two more TD's...

On the line there are no problems for Coach Tate because he lost only one starter—end and captain Bud Hunter—but that one gap has been well filled by Sam

Cecil Smith Still Star Polo Player At The Age Of 52

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—At 52, an age when most athletes have long since retired to the easy chair with pipe and slippers, Cecil Smith still flings himself on a horse and rides like the wind on a polo field.

For the 20th year Smith has a 10-goal rating, the acme in this hard game of ride-offs and break-neck speed.

Smith holds the record for 10-game years and the player who has been 10 goals the most consecutive years—19.
