

HOPES TO GET SIGNALS FROM MARS

HOPING TO RECEIVE radio signals from Mars when it reaches its nearest point to earth, four members of a scientific team make tests in Washington of a giant "radio ear" to be used in the experiment. The device is a radio receiver with a 50-foot parabolic reflector similar to the one used to pick up signals from Venus. It is set up in the U.S. Naval research laboratory. Asbury Bradley Celebrates 86th Birthday

By MRS. C. L. BRADLEY
Community Reporter

Asbury Bradley celebrated his 86th birthday Sunday with a picnic dinner at the Heintooa picnic grounds. His children, present for the occasion, were Sam Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bradley, and Mr. and Mrs. Grover Caldwell. A number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren also attended.

The Maggie Valley Chamber of Commerce reports that this has been a good tourist season. Traffic has slowed down since the Labor Day weekend.

The Maggie Valley Kiwanis Club has put up several new mail boxes and the State Highway Department has erected a highway sign to keep litterbugs from marring the roadside with trash.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Carter of Sylva are operating the Carter Furniture Shop in Maggie Valley this season. They are located next door to the Maggie Drug Store. The furniture is made by Mr. Carter, a fourth generation cabinet maker.

Miss Barbara Keiner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Keiner, will leave Sunday to enter Warren-Wilson College at Swannanoa.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Valentine of Newport, Tenn., and their daughter, Mary Valentine of Carson Newman College, Jefferson City, Tenn., and Miss Dorothy Valentine of Knoxville visited Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Caldwell last weekend.

Miss Helen Caldwell and Miss

Patsy McDaniel have returned from Florida where they visited Miss Joan DeLahage at Daytona Beach and Mr. and Mrs. Kent Reynolds at West Palm Beach.

Miss Eva Jo Mehaffey, a nurse at the Army Hospital in Greenville, Miss., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Conley Mehaffey.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Carpenter and children, Debbie, Barbara, and Donnie, of Gulfport, Miss., have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bradley.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Strain have closed the Candy Cabin at Maggie for the season and have returned
