Miss Margaret Jane Wykle Becomes The Bride Of William Harold Collins

Miss Margaret Jane Wykle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frank Wykle of Canton, became the bride of William Harold Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Collins of Gainesville, Ga., Saturday at 5 p.m. in the Central Methodist Church of Canton.

The Rev. Cecil G. Hefner, pastor of the church performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Roy Pless of Canton, organist, presented a program of wedding music. Vocalists were Miss Patricia Davidson of Columbia, S. C., and David Kirkpatrick of Canton.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of imported, embroidered white silk featuring a princess style bodice, low scalloped neckline and cap sleeves.

The bouffant skirt, edged with scallops, extended into a chapel length train.

Her tiered veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a halo of orange blossoms with tiara points of rhinestones. She wore a small white gold cross centered with a diamond, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, orchids, and stephanotis, showered with tuberoses and satin streamers.

Miss Janice Cooper of Morristown, Tenn., served as her cousin's maid of honor. Her waltz length dress of frost rose taffeta was fashioned with a portrait neckline bordered with Alencon lace, fitted bodice, and full tiered skirt worn over hoops. She wore matching mitts and cof, and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations, asters, and roses with a lighted candle in the center.

Bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Collins, sister of the bridegroom, of Gainesville, Mrs. Paul Henson of Blacksburg, Va., Miss Anne Gibson of Douglas, Ga., and Miss Atwood Westmoreland, Miss Mariana Moon, and Miss Claire Seaman, all of Canton. They wore dresses, coifs, and mitts of frost green taffeta identical in design to those of the honor attendant.

Junior attendants were Miss Karen Kearse, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Kearse of Canton, and David Shields Wykle, brother of the bride. Miss Kearse wore a floor length dress and bandeau of frost pink taffeta, and carried a miniature nosegay of mixed flowers.

E. E. Collins, Jr. of Gainesville was his brother's best man, Ushers were Paul Henson of Blacksburg, Va., Jim Collins, brother of the bridegroom, John Vardaman, Lawrence Wofford, Louis Davis, and Charles Wofford, all of Gainesville.

Honorary bridesmaids were: Miss Lucretia Rhodarmar, Miss Anne Sechrest, Miss Jane Johnson, all of Canton, and Mrs. Charles Wofford and Mrs. John Vardaman of Gainesville.

The bride's mother wore a semi-formal dress of pink and rose taffeta and Alencon lace, a matching sequin hat, and a pink corsage.

The mother of the groom wore a teal blue lace dress over taffeta with a teal velvet hat, and a pink corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Glenelle's on Pisgah Drive, Mrs. R. D. Coleman, Jr., pianist, presented wedding music. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Fleetwood Smathers, Mrs. J. Frank Pate, Mrs. J. R. Westmoreland, Mrs. C. C. Nicholls, Mrs. W. O. Kearse, and Mrs. Clayton Mahaffey.

For a southern wedding trip the bride wore a cream cashmere wool suit with coco brown accessories, and a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Collins attended Brenau College, where she was a member of Alpha Chi Omega Sorority and Kappa Pi and Tau Sigma honorary fraternities.

Mr. Collins attended North Georgia Military College and is now affiliated in business with his father in Gainesville.

The couple will make their home at Hulseys Apartments in Gainesville.

Robert Deas, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Deas of Canton, the only Haywood County winner of a National Merit Scholarship, has enrolled in the freshman class of the University of Virginia at Charlottesville.

Miss Nelda Cashion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cashion of Clyde, left last week for Greensboro where she will begin a commercial course at Woman's College.

Back Talk In Hairdos

By VIVIAN BROWN

AP Newsfeatures Beauty Editor HAIR INTEREST goes to the back of the head.

Every conceivable type of chignon from the tiny Swiss roll variety to the large Danish pastry type is being worn. Short-haired girls add hair pieces to accomplish this end. Long-haired girls sweep back the hair and twist it into a little bun to suit their hair length.

Newest twist to the idea is the tinted chignon to match summer clothes and accessories. Mix and match chignons in two-toned tinted hair are the trend. The chignon is worn in a double bun looped and braided in complementary and contrasting colors. Fashion-wise types may choose from 14 hair tints ranging from canary diamond and carrot-top hues to a gleaming bronze and jet black.

Such combinations as pastel blue and black are chic for summer. Ditto yellow and white. Two shades of green suggest the cool look of a limeade.

The interesting point about the return to chignon hair fashions is that it is a spontaneous choice of the girls themselves. There has been no promotion by hairdressers, even though the idea is catching on like wildfire. The new tinted chignon should create even more excitement.

Hair accessories are taking on important airs now that the chignon is with us again. From the islands come delightful native hair gimmicks. Long Japanese hairpins with jeweled tops that are worn criss-crossed are very popular. Hawaiian tourists bring back hair accessories that resemble oversized chop sticks. These are made of wood as well as other materials.

TWO-TONE CHIGNON . . . Tint your hair to match your ensemble. That's the newest wrinkle in the beauty world. This chignon was designed by Doris Fleischer.

Miss Vicki Jo Smathers And Charles Herron, Jr., Are Married In Canton

Miss Vicki Jo Smathers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smathers of Canton, became the bride of Charles Herron, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Herron of Asheville, last Monday at 4 p.m. in the Morning Star Methodist Church.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Kenneth Crouse, pastor of the church. Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Crouse, organist and Mrs. Paul Browning of Canton, vocalist.

The couple entered the church together. The bride wore a teal blue silk dress, designed with a low round neckline, bracelet length sleeves and a full skirt. Her navy blue velvet hat was trimmed with pearls, and she carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and showered with streamers.

Miss Ann Smathers was her cousin's maid of honor. She wore a beige silk dress, beige accessories, and carried a colonial bouquet of mixed fall flowers.

Francis Feimster of Asheville, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Jerry Johnson and Ronald Plemmons of Canton, cousins of the bride.

Following the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip.

Mrs. Herron was graduated from Canton High School, and is now employed at the Canton Drug Store.

Mr. Herron, a graduate of Biltmore High School, is serving in the U. S. Navy at Bainbridge, Md.

Macaroni As Main Dish

By ALICE DENHOFF

HERE are some recipes that artfully blend dash with dependability. They are easy-to-fix oven meals that provide the one hot dish that a dinner should have and yet minimize time in the kitchen.

Seafood Soufflé
Seafood Macaroni Soufflé to serve 4-6 takes 8 ounces of elbow macaroni.
Prepare macaroni according to package directions.
Melt ¼ c. butter or margarine and blend in ¼ c. all-purpose flour. Gradually add 1½ c. milk and cook, stirring constantly, until thickened and smooth.
Add 1 c. grated processed Cheddar cheese (about 4 oz.), tsp. each Worcestershire sauce and prepared mustard, ¼ tsp. Tabasco, 1 c. flaked salmon and the cooked macaroni. Stir until cheese is melted.

Separate 4 eggs, beat yolks until thick and lemon-colored. Fold into macaroni mixture.
Add a dash of salt to the egg whites and whip until stiff but not dry. Fold into macaroni mixture. Turn into 2½ qt. casserole and bake at 325°F. 1 hr. and 20 min. or until firm.

Supper Special
This delicious dish makes a fine supper special for 6.
Prepare 2 c. elbow macaroni according to package directions. Combine the macaroni, 1 c. chili sauce, ½ c. mayonnaise, 2 tsp.

prepared horseradish, tsp. Worcestershire sauce, tsp. salt. Mix thoroughly.
Combine a (1 lb.) can salmon, drained, boned and flaked, and 2 tsp. lemon juice.
Arrange alternate layers of macaroni, salmon mixture and onion slices—about 1 medjumbo-sized onion, thinly sliced for all. End with macaroni mixture.
Cover and bake at 350°F. 40 min.
Garnish with green pepper strips, if desired.

Chicken and Noodles
Baked Chicken and Noodles to serve 4, takes 8 ounces wide egg noodles (about 4 c.), cooked according to package directions.
Melt 2 tsp. butter or margarine over low heat. Add a thin-sliced, medium-sized onion and 3 tsp. chopped parsley. Sauté until onion is tender.
Add a (10½-oz.) can condensed cream of chicken soup, ¾ c. milk and 2 tsp. cooking sherry and mix well.
Combine noodles and sauce and turn into greased 2-qt. casserole. Meanwhile, dredge a (3-lb.) frying chicken, cut in serving pieces, in a mixture of flour, salt and pepper. Melt ¼ c. fat over medium heat. Add chicken and brown well.
Place chicken on top of noodles in casserole.
Cover and bake at 375°F. 35 to 45 min. or until chicken is tender.
