Sunday School Lesson

The Kingdom Triumphant

JESUS TEACHES US HOW TO PRAY, AND JOHN WRITES OF THE SONGS OF PRAISE OF THE REDEEMED IN HEAVEN

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
 JESUS had a good deal to say about prayer. He prayed many times in his short life on earth, and God is our Father, too, and every child who has a good father knows that if he wants something he asks his father for it. A earthly father cannot always give his child what he asks for either because it may not be wise or because he cannot afford the price, or for other good reasons. Jesus says God will answer our prayers if we go to Him in the right spirit, but sometimes we pray for the wrong things and we can see later that we should not have asked for them, or that we are the better for not getting them. In the first part of our lesson Jesus tells us how to pray. There are some, He says, who want to

We are told next to pray for our daily bread, and do we, as we ask that, remember the countless millions who never get their daily bread or not enough to nourish their bodies, and ask Him to help them too? "And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil." God never leads us into temptation. He only leads us to the good. It is the evil spirit who tempts us and we pray that we are given strength to resist the evil. We are also told to pray that we be forgiven our sins as we forgive them that sin against us, for if we are unforgiving, how can God forgive us? In his wonderful book of Revelation, John tells of the great multitude standing before the throne of God—people of all races and tongues—all clothed in white because their sins had been washed away by Jesus' sac-be heard and praised by many for their supposed piety. They stand on street corners or in the synagogue or church and pray loud and long, not to beg mercy on their souls, or for forgiveness of their sins, but to be heard. Christ tells us that when we pray we should enter into our closet (or bedroom), close the door and pray in secret, and God will answer us, for He knows what we need as well as we do. We can pray on our knees when we are ready for bed, or after we are in our beds, or when we are sitting quietly in church or Sunday school and He will hear us. We need not always ask Him for things. We can thank Him for the many blessings we have been given. Christ gave us the model prayer which we all know so well, "Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, in earth as it is in heaven."

rice. They held palms in their hands and were singing praises to God and Christ. "And all the angels stood roundabout the throne . . . and fell before the throne on their faces and worshiped God, saying: "Blessing and glory, and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might unto our God for ever and ever. Amen." "And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying: The kingdoms of the world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of His Christ and He shall reign for ever and ever." Our space for this lesson is filled. However, let the teachers not neglect to tell the children about the rest of this great Revelation of John's and talk to them about it. The older ones might be encouraged to read it aloud in turns and later to discuss it among themselves under the teacher's guidance. POINT OF NO RETURN!

More intently than ever the pilot now watches his dials, cocking a sensitive ear to the motors' rhythm. He has reached the point of no return. He dare not turn back. Years of research by scores of scientists have perfected his plane. Hours upon hours have been spent in readying it for the journey. If something goes wrong now, the pilot will know instinctively what to do, because of his long years of training. Like the pilot, you try to prepare for emergencies. You realize that without training beforehand, it is impossible to meet a crisis wisely and adequately. The spiritual knowledge you'll need for these times can be found in the Church. Through its guidance you will learn to meet everyday problems with serenity, and emergencies with confidence. Begin right now to strengthen your spiritual reserves of courage, faith, and hope. TODAY is your point of no return.

HOLY BIBLE

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
