

34 Names Drawn For Bear Hunts

Season Starts In Mountains October 15

At a bear-hunt drawing Wednesday morning at the courthouse, conducted by officials of the N.C. Wildlife Resources Commission, names of 34 applicants were selected for hunts in Santeetlah, Sherwood, and Pisgah game refuges this fall.

The bear and bear and bear hunts will open October 15 and close November 9 except in the Gloucester area of Pisgah where hunts will last only until Oct. 19.

Names of 99 party leader applicants were enclosed in plastic capsules and were drawn out of a fish-bowl by Hub Parker, veteran bear hunter, who lives on the Lake Logan road. In charge of the drawing was Frank Barrick, chief of the game division, Wildlife Resources Commission.

Successful applicants for hunts in the Santeetlah Refuge were:

BIG SANTEEHLAH—Lee Orr of Robbinsville, Oct. 15-16; Ray Shetley of Maggie, Oct. 18-19; L. J. Watkins of Copper Hill, Tenn., Oct. 22-23; Raleigh Warren of Sylva, Oct. 25-26; W. C. Marcus of Robbinsville, Oct. 29-30; Claude Hyde of Robbinsville, Nov. 1-2; D. R. Brock of Robbinsville, Nov. 5-6; Claude Hyde of Robbinsville, Nov. 8-9.

DEEP CREEK (Santeetlah)—Oscar Jones of Black Mountain, Oct. 15-16; C. L. Lusk of Greenville, Oct. 18-19; Blaine Stewart of Robbinsville, Oct. 22-23; Patton Phillips of Robbinsville, Oct. 25-26; Aage Guge of Tapoco, Oct. 29-30; Frank Lewis of Whittier, Nov. 1-2; Clifford Holcombe of Whittier, Nov. 5-6, and Claude L. Orr of Robbinsville, Nov. 8-9.

Successful applicants for hunts in Sherwood Forest were:

WEST FORK—John B. Henson of Canton, Oct. 15-16; Charlie Hooper of Robbinsville, Oct. 18-19; Kenneth Browning of Canton, Oct. 22-23; James E. Henson of Canton, Oct. 25-26; Dr. W. F. Hargrove of Hendersonville, Oct. 29-30; V. M. Rhea of Hazelwood, Nov. 1-2; N. L. Reece of Canton, Nov. 5-6, and Thomas A. Garrett of Hazelwood, Nov. 8-9.

Bethel At Home Friday Afternoon Against Murphy

After successive losses to powerhouses Canton and Waynesville, the Bethel Blue Demons hope to break into the win column Friday afternoon in a home against the unbeaten Murphy Bulldogs.

The game will be one of the features of the annual Pigeon Valley Fair, which opened today at Bethel School.

Although they have been outclassed each time, the Blue Demons have shown promise, with good line play—sparked by Joe Bob Fish, Gerald Hill, and Daryl Gant—and a nice passing attack, with Carroll Lowe on the throwing end.

Back Billy Burress also looked good last week against the Mountaineers.

In their two games this season, the Murphy Bulldogs have beaten Andrews, 7-6, and Sylva, 12-6.

Coach Bruce Jaynes of WTHS announced this morning that senior Charles Robinson will start in place of co-captain Carroll Hooper, regular halfback, who underwent an appendicitis operation Sunday, and will be out of action for an undetermined period of time.

Hooper has been reported recovering rapidly from his appendectomy, and is expected to leave the hospital today.

Expected to give Robinson a hand on the halfback chores against Reynolds tomorrow night is Tommy Parris.

Commenting on the severe setback to his team's hopes, Coach Jaynes pointed out that Hooper is outstanding both on offense and defense and is an excellent "team man."

Last week in the opener against Bethel, Hooper scored two touchdowns, one on a short pass from Jack Holder and another on a 98-yard run with an intercepted pass.

Hooper's role as co-captain will be taken over temporarily by Neal Palmer, the team's other starting halfback, who has been appointed alternate captain.

In winning Bethel last week, 53-6, the Mountaineers displayed a smooth, quick-moving ground game and a line that limited the Blue Demons to an average of slightly less than 13 yards per quarter.

Coach Jaynes praised his squad for its teamwork and lauded the running of Grasty and Palmer and the ball handling of Lane. He also commented that "the entire line played well—both the starters and the reserves."

Waynesville's opponent here tomorrow night has a decided edge in experience this season with three games under their belt to the Mountaineers' one.

The Buncombe team opened its 1956 campaign by defeating Erwin, 6-0; was bowled over the next week by the rampaging Brevard Blue Devils, 56-0; but bounced back last Friday to batter Leicester, 33-0.

Last year in the first meeting between Waynesville and Reynolds, the Mountaineers won 27-0.

BIG EAST FORK—C. O. Rogers of Canton, Oct. 15-16; Hubert F. Parker of Lake Logan, Oct. 18-19; Robert J. Messer of Canton, Oct. 22-23; Harold Haynes of Clyde, Oct. 25-26; N. M. Medford of Waynesville, Oct. 29-30; Wayne

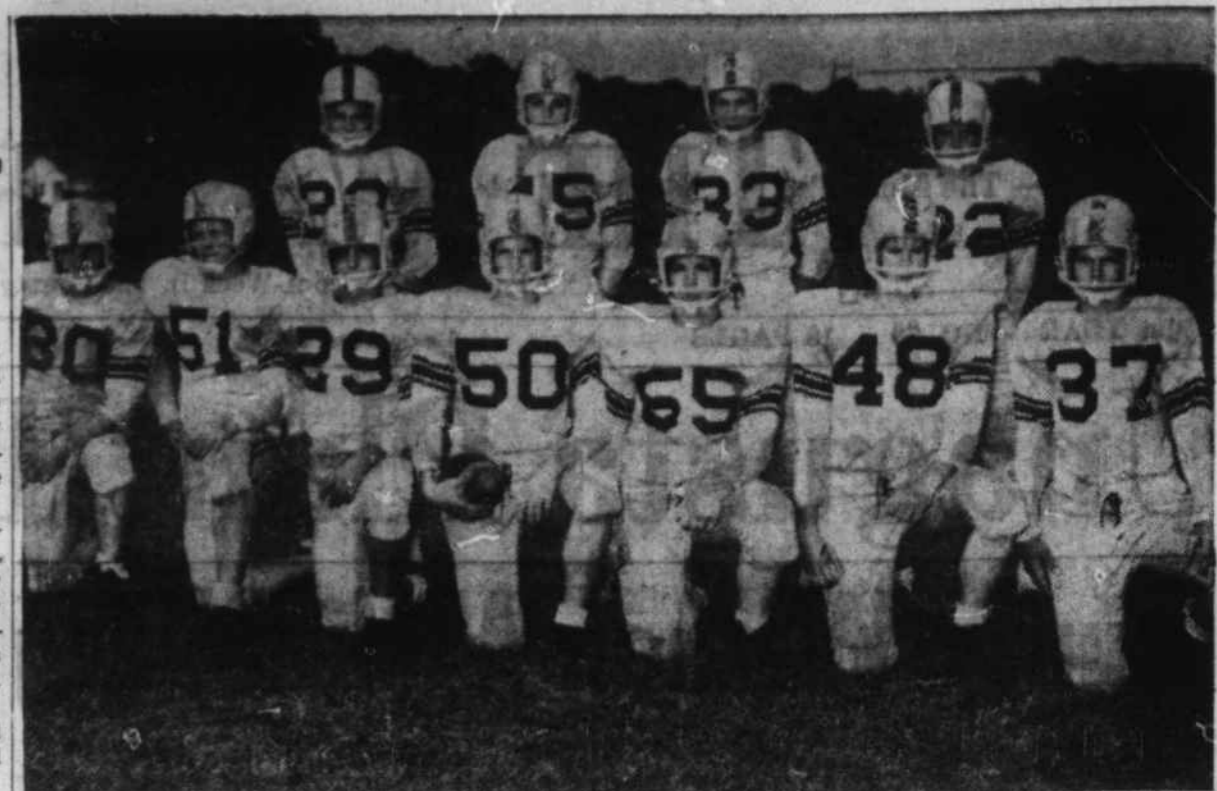

Canton At Brevard For Loop Clash

The Canton Black Bears, still undefeated and unscored on, will meet their toughest opposition to date on Friday night when they journey to Brevard for an important Blue Ridge Conference game with the Blue Devils.

To keep up with the also unbeaten Hendersonville Bearcats, the game at Brevard is a big one for the Black Bears. For the Blue Devils, beaten last week at Hendersonville, 33-21, another loss would just about drop Brevard out of the conference race.

In their opener, Canton halted Bethel, 25-0, and then grounded the Enka Jets last week, 24-0.

In the bruins' first two games,

Bethel Hound Show Set At Stadium On Saturday

The Bethel Hound Show will be held on the Bethel athletic field Saturday morning at 10 a.m.

The show, to be held under National Bench Show rules, will be judged by Muncy I. Anderson of Jacksonville, Fla., and Waynesville. He is a retired municipal judge of Jacksonville. He is a past president of the Florida State Fox Hunters Association, and has judged many shows throughout the South.

There will be a special class for puppies under six months. There will be 14 classes, with a trophy for the best hound in the show.

All fox hunters are invited to attend and bring their hounds. Free hound feed will be served on the grounds and drinking water will be available.

Clyde To Seek Fourth Conference Win On Road Against Spruce Pine Friday

The Clyde Cardinals will seek their fourth straight Skyline-A Conference victory at 8 p.m. Friday at Spruce Pine against Harris High, last year's conference champions.

Clyde, currently tied for the conference lead with Marshall, saw the Marshall-Spruce Pine game last week and termed the losers "inexperienced but big."

The Cardinals' pilot said his team suffered a letdown against Bakersville last Friday after an outstanding performance the previous week against Mars Hill.

"We suffered from the heat, and our offense was way off," he remarked.

On the bright side in the Bakersville game, Coach Griffin said, was the defensive work of his team—especially Bill Ingram and Charles Carver. Ingram, he added, "is little, but has an excellent spirit."

The Cardinals came out of the Bakersville game without any new injuries, but fullback Johnny Rogers, the team's leading scorer, and quarterback Bob McCracken saw only limited action last Friday.

"Into each life some rain must fall."

Last Sunday night Coach Bruce Jaynes had a whole cloud-burst fall on his head when Carroll Hooper, halfback and co-captain of the Mountaineer football team, underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Fortunately, Carroll came through the operation well and will be back to school before too long, but it will be some time before he's ready to venture out on the gridiron again.

Until Hooper's attack of appendicitis, skies were looking sunny for the Gold and Black pigskinners and local fans were looking forward with relish to coming games with Canton and Hendersonville.

Now, it's hard to tell how much Waynesville's T-formation attack will be weakened by Hooper's absence.

Coach Jaynes points out that the Saunook speedster was not only a fine runner, but also a valuable defensive man—especially on pass protection. (As an example, Carroll ran 98 yards with a Bethel pass last week and 54 yards with another Blue Devil aerial in 1955.)

On the bright side of the picture, however, is the fact that the Mountaineers have a sizeable grid squad and it may be that somewhere in the ranks of the reserves there may be an able replacement for Hooper. It's not likely that Coach Jaynes can come up with an all-around performer like his ailing co-captain, but some substitute may be ready to play a lot of football.

Looking over comparative statistics on the Bethel game this year, and last season, we see that the Mountaineers outshined the Blue Demons last Friday 360 to 51 yards, while the edge in 1955 was only 101 to 73 yards.

In first downs, Waynesville picked up 17 first downs to Bethel's five last week, but the margin in first downs last year was only 11 to seven.

One of the most promising things about the 1956 Mountaineers is their teamwork and team balance. Although there are a number of capable players on the squad, it doesn't appear now that any one boy will far outshine any of the others.

In 1954 and 1955, stopping Waynesville's running attack was largely a matter of trying to put the brakes on the Mountaineer juggernaut, J. W. Stevens. But this year, all of the WTHS backs are accomplished ground-gainers. Until Hooper went out, all four starters were potential touchdown-getters everytime they carried the ball.

Sometime-You-Can't-Win-Dept: Early in the fourth quarter halfback Bill Moore of WTHS made a nice run through the center of the Bethel line for a touchdown, but the ball was brought back and the Mountaineers penalized.

Clyde's present football team may prove to be the strongest in school history, and the Cardinals have an excellent chance of compiling a much better record this season than last year's mark of 5-4-1. But the Maroon and Gold eleven will have to go all out to cop the championship, won last year by Spruce Pine.

In three games this year, the Marshall Tornados have clobbered everything in sight and still are unscored on. So the game between the two contenders for the championship—at Marshall next week—ought to be a lulu!

Bonus Boy Stars In Debut

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Giants expect big things from Michael Francis McCormick for two reasons. The first is the fact that they agreed to give him a $65,000 bonus over a period of years. The second reason for their optimism is the manner in which McCormick handled himself in his debut. In one inning of relief work in a losing game against the Phillies, McCormick retired the side on six pitches. He got Stan Lopata, Del Ennis and Jim Green-grass.

SORRELLS OF CANTON, Nov. 1-2; G. C. Farmer of Waynesville, Nov. 5-6, and Dr. A. P. Cline, Jr., of Canton, Nov. 8-9.

GLUCESTER (Pisgah)—Tom Bryson of Balsam, Oct. 15-16, and L. H. Rogers of Canton, Oct. 18-19.
